Religion, Modernity, Globalisation François Gauthier, 2019-09-30

This book argues that the last four decades have seen profound and important changes in the nature and social location of religion and that those changes are best understood when cast against the associated rise of consumerism and neoliberalism These transformations are often misunderstood and underestimated namely because the study of religion remains dependent on the secularisation paradigm which can no longer provide a sufficiently fruitful framework for analysis The book challenges diagnoses of transience and fragmentation by proposing an alternative narrative and set of concepts for understanding the global religious landscape The present situation is framed as the result of a shift from a National Statist to a Global Market regime of religion Adopting a holistic perspective that breaks with the current specialisation tendencies it charts the emergence of the State and the Market as institutions and ideas related to social order as well as their changing rapports from classical modernity to today Breaking with a tradition of Western centeredness the book offers probing enquiries into Indonesia and a synthesis of global and Western trends This long awaited book offers a bold new vision for the social scientific study of religion and will be of great interest to all scholars of the Sociology and Anthropology of religion as well as Religious Studies in general The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Facing Each Other (2 Volumes) Anthony Pagden, 2017-09-08

The perception of Europeans of the world and of the peoples beyond Europe has become in recent years the subject of intense scholarly interest and heated debate both in and outside the academy So too has the concern with how it was that those peoples who were variously discovered and then as often as not colonised understood the strangers in their midst This volume attempts to cover both these topics as well as to provide a number of crucial articles on the difficulties faced by modern historians in understanding the complex relationship between them and us Inevitably such relationships not only changed over time they also varied greatly from culture to culture The articles therefore cover most of the areas with which the European world came into contact from the earliest Portuguese incursions into Africa in the mid fifteenth century until the explorations of Cook and Bougainville in the Pacific in the late eighteenth It ranges too from Brazil to Russia from Tahiti to China
