Viennese architect Adolf Loos was one of the most important pioneers of the European Modern Movement Born in 1870 he was an early opponent of the decorative trends of Art Nouveau believing instead that architecture devoid of ornament represented pure and lucid thought His rationalist design theories were put into practice in the Karntner Bar Vienna 1907 Steiner House Vienna 1920 and Villa Muller Prague 1930 Surprisingly there is no other monograph on Loos in English currently available Adolf Loos joins Adalberto Libera and Albert Kahn in Princeton Architectural Press's historical monographs series and presents this great modernist's complete works through numerous illustrations Towards Universality Richard Padovan, 2013-07-04 There is no shortage of books about Le Corbusier or Mies van der Rohe or De Stijl However this book considers them in relation to each other observing how a study of one can illuminate the works of the others Going beyond a superficial look at the end products of these architects this book examines the philosophical foundations of their work taking as its central theme the aim of universality as opposed to the individual and the particular Each of these three aimed at universality but for each this concept took on a different form The universality of De Stijl and artists like Van Doesburg and Mondrian resembled that of the universe itself it was boundless going beyond the limits of the canvas and seeking to abolish the wall as the boundary between interior and exterior space In contrast each of Le Corbusier's creations was a self-contained universe within a clear frame while Mies fluctuated between these two perspectives The city of to-morrow and its planning, by le corbusier, 1947 Le Corbusier - Oeuvre complète Willy
