Ravaged In The Haunted House Paranormal Horror Erotica:

Sacred Groves and Ravaged Gardens Louise Westling, 2008 In Sacred Groves and Ravaged Gardens Louise Westling explores how the complex difficult roles of women in southern culture shaped the literary worlds of Eudora Welty Carson McCullers and Flannery O'Connor Tracing the cultural heritage of the South Westling shows how southern women reacted to the violent false world created by their men a world in which women came to be shrouded as icons of purity in atonement for the sins of men Exposing the actual conditions of women's lives creating assertive protagonists who resist or revise conventional roles and exploring rich matriarchal traditions and connections to symbolic landscapes Welty McCullers and O'Connor created a body of fiction that enriches and complements the patriarchal version of southern life presented in the works of William Faulkner John Crowe Ransom Allen Tate and William Styron

Queer Horror Sean Abley, Tyler Doupé, 2023-12-21 From the beginning horror has been part of the cinema landscape Despite some of the earliest genre films with gay directors such as F.W. Murnau Nosferatu and James Whale Frankenstein The Invisible Man Bride of Frankenstein LGBTQIA characters have rarely been portrayed in full view For decades filmmakers have included coded content in their films with the homosexual experience translated into censor friendly subtext for consumption by general audiences Gradually LGBTQIA characters and themes have moved from the background to the foreground as the horror genre has grown along with its audience's tastes and attitudes Likewise more and more LGBTQIA writers and directors have begun to offer their queer centric takes on scary movies and today queer horror is a thriving film genre With more than 900 entries this critical filmography is a comprehensive critical yet playful examination of the history of LGBTQIA content in horror films Eight journalistic contributors dig into every era of scary movies including the early silents pre and post Hays Code content grindhouse sleaze LGBTQIA indies and megaplex studio releases From Whale's The Old Dark House 1932 to Don Mancini's Chucky films and everything in between this collection explores what can be found at the intersection of LGBTQIA and horror in the film industry

I Spit On Your Celluloid Heidi Honeycutt, 2024-08-08 Slumber Party Massacre Pet Sematary Near Dark American Psycho These horror movies have heavily contributed to pop culture and are loved by horror fans everywhere But so many others have been forgotten by history From the first silent reels to modern independent films in this book you'll discover the creepy horrible grotesque beautiful wrong good and fantastic and the one thing they share in common This is the true history of women directing horror movies Having conducted hundreds of interviews and watched thousands of horror films Heidi Honeycutt defines the political and cultural forces that shape the way modern horror movies are made by women The women's rights and civil rights movements new distribution technology digital cameras the destruction of the classic studio system and the abandonment of the Hays code have significantly impacted women directors and their movies So too social media modern ideas of gender and racial equality LGBTQ acceptance and a new generation of provocative daring films that take shocking risks in the genre Includes short films anthologies documentaries animated horror horror pornography pink films and experimental horror I Spit on Your Celluloid is a first of its kind celebration study and a book that needed to be written says cult filmmaker Stephanie Rothman You will never look at horror movies the same way again
