Islam in German East Africa, 1885–1918 Jörg Haustein, 2023-07-14 In this rich and multi layered deconstruction of German colonial engagement with Islam Jörg Haustein shows how imperial agents in Germany's largest colony wielded the knowledge category of Islam in a broad set of debates ranging from race language and education to slavery law conflict and war These representations of Mohammedanism often invoked for particular political ends amounted to a serious misreading of Muslims in East Africa with significant long term effects As the first in depth account of the politics of Islam in German East Africa the book makes an essential contribution to the history of religion in Tanzania before British rule It also offers a template for re reading the colonial archive in a manner that recovers Muslim agency beyond a European paradigm of religion

Kenya's Past as Prologue Fouere, Marie-Aude, Mwangi, Susan, 2015-06-16 During the run up to Kenya's 2013 general elections crucial political and civic questions were raised Could past mistakes especially political and ethnic related violence be avoided this time round Would the spectre of the 2007 post electoral violence positively or negatively affect debates and voting How would politicians electoral bodies such as the IEBC the Kenyan civil society and the international community weigh in on the elections More generally would the 2013 elections bear witness to the building up of an electoral culture in Kenya characterized by free and fair elections or would it show that voting is still weakened by political malpractices partisan opinions and emotional reactions Would Kenya's past be inescapable or would it prepare the scene for a new political order Kenya's Past as Prologue adopts a multidisciplinary perspective mainly built upon field based ethnography and a selection of case studies to answer these questions Under the leadership of the French Institute for Research in Africa Institut français de recherche en Afrique IFRA political scientists historians and anthropologists explore various aspects of the electoral process to contribute in depth analyses of the last elections They highlight the structural factors underlying election and voting in Kenya including the political system culture and political transition They also interrogate the short term trends and issues that influence the new political order The book provides insight into specific case studies situations and contexts thus bringing nuances and diversity into focus to better assess Kenya s evolving electoral democracy Swahili Muslim Publics and Postcolonial Experience Kai Kresse,2018-12-17 Swahili Muslim Publics and Postcolonial Experience is an exploration of the ideas and public discussions that have shaped and defined the experience of Kenyan coastal Muslims Focusing on Kenyan postcolonial history Kai Kresse isolates the ideas that coastal Muslims have used to separate themselves from their upcountry Christian countrymen Kresse looks back to key moments and key texts pamphlets newspapers lectures speeches radio discussions as a way to map out the postcolonial experience and how it is negotiated in the coastal Muslim community On one level this is a historical ethnography of how and why the content of public discussion matters so much to communities at particular points in time Kresse shows how intellectual practices can lead to a regional understanding of the world and society On another level this ethnography of the postcolonial experience also reveals dimensions of intellectual practice in religious communities and thus provides an alternative model that offers a non Western way to understand regional conceptual frameworks and intellectual practice

Beyond Federation Emma Hunter,Daniel Branch,Ismay Milford,Gerard McCann,2025-08-18 In the period of mid twentieth century decolonization when nationalism and globalism were hotly contested East Africans nurtured regionalism in their intellectual and creative work This book looks beyond political projects of federation to recover ideas and practices of regionalism their remarkable longevity and their significance for understanding possibilities of radical change In doing so it tells a different story about the fate of the category of East Africa building on a body of scholarship about the imagined political communities of decolonizing Africa and rejecting narratives that explain the failure of regional integration as the immediate consequence of postcolonial authoritarianism or global economic crisis The Green State in Africa Carl Death,2016-09-27 A provocative reassessment of the relationship between states and environmental politics in Africa From climate related risks such as crop failure and famine to longer term concerns about sustainable urbanization environmental justice and biodiversity conservation African states face a range of environmental issues As Carl Death demonstrates the ways in which they are addressing them have important political ramifications and challenge current understandings of green politics Death draws on almost a decade of research to reveal how central African environmental politics are to the transformation of African states Food Systems Sustainability and Environmental Policies in Modern Economies Obayelu, Abiodun Elijah,2018-03-09 Food security is essential to the advancement and development of economies and societies worldwide The promotion of viable food structures is the most effective method of promoting food security Food Systems Sustainability and Environmental Policies in Modern Economies is a relevant research publication that explores the War-Making as Worldmaking Samar Al-Bulushi, 2024-11-12 Since Kenya's invasion of Somalia in 2011 the Kenyan state has been engaged in direct combat with the Somali militant group Al Shabaab conducting airstrikes in southern Somalia and deploying heavy handed police tactics at home As the hunt for suspects has expanded within Kenya Kenyan Muslims have been subject to disappearances and extrajudicial killings at the hands of U S trained Kenyan police War Making as Worldmaking explores the entanglement of militarism imperialism and liberal democratic governance in East Africa today Samar Al Bulushi argues that Kenya's emergence as a key player in the War on Terror is closely linked but not reducible to the U S military's growing proclivity to outsource the labor of war Attending to the cultural politics of security Al Bulushi illustrates that the war against Al Shabaab has become a means to produce new fantasies emotions and subjectivities about Kenya's place in the world Meanwhile Kenya's alignment with the U S provides cover for the criminalization and policing of the country's Muslim minority population How is life lived in a place that is not understood to be a site of war yet is often experienced as such by its targets This book weaves together multiple scales of analysis asking what a view from East Africa can tell us about the shifting configurations and expansive geographies of post 9 11 imperial warfare

Mobilization for Violent Politicized Islam Hawa Noor, 2024-08-05 This book focuses on the involvement of some Kenyans in al Shabaab an affiliate of Al Qaeda based in Somalia despite their country's relative stability compared to Somalia It discusses the origin of the Kenyan state and how colonization created social stratification that benefited elites closer to the center while excluding marginalized groups at the periphery The argument is that this pattern still prevails despite attempts to enhance equality such as the adoption of a new constitution in 2010 promoting the devolution of power and resources The persistence of this condition it is argued is what initially handed al Qaeda and later al Shabaab opportunities for mobilization enabled by its creative politicization of religion The heavy handed tactics employed by security forces under the auspices of the War on Terror further catalyzed this process resulting in more Kenyan individuals joining the group Using an historical and political process approach the book shows how the interplay of structural conditions and al Shabaab's mobilization strategy linked with individuals motivations for joining the group Based on individuals own narratives about their participation the latter is empirically demonstrated to be non linear incorporating motivations beyond rational ones contrary to the overemphasis on ideology in the literature on participation in groups similar to al Shabaab This book will of much interest to students of political violence African politics Islamic studies and International Relations

Boundaries, Communities and State-Making in West Africa Paul Nugent, 2019-06-06 By examining three centuries of history this book shows how vital border regions have been in shaping states and social contracts

Islamic Ecumene David S. Powers, Eric Tagliacozzo, 2023-11-15 The essays in Islamic Ecumene address the ways in which Muslims from Morocco to Indonesia and from sub Saharan Africa to the steppes of Uzbekistan are members of a broad cultural unit Although the Muslim inhabitants of these lands speak dozens of languages represent numerous ethnic groups and practice diverse forms of Islam they are united by shared practices and worldviews shaped by religious identity To highlight these commonalities the co editors invited a team of scholars from a wide range of disciplines to examine Muslim societies in comparative and interconnected ways The result is a book that showcases ethics education architecture the arts modernization political resistance marriage divorce and death rituals Using the insights and methods of historians anthropologists literary critics art historians political scientists and sociologists Islamic Ecumene seeks to understand Islamic identity as a dynamic phenomenon that is reflected in the multivalent practices of the more than one billion people across the planet who identify as Muslims

Transoceanic and Transmedial Imaginaries in the Indian Ocean Ute Fendler, Clarissa Vierke, 2025-09-23 Transoceanic and Transmedial Imaginaries in the Indian Ocean explores multiple aesthetic relations constantly in flux which construct deconstruct and reconstruct the Indian Ocean It addresses the questions of how the arts music literature visual art and performance relate to and dynamically create imaginaries of the Indian Ocean as a transcontinental space Contributors focus on the relations and interference of various art forms including literature music visual arts installations and performance as well as local crafts and cross the boundaries of language s which have often separated views of the Indian Ocean along the monolingual logic of disciplines This book takes a transmedial perspective and studies the Indian Ocean as a fluid space in which languages images music and dance movements have been traveling and influencing each other for centuries It analyzes how music verbal audiovisual or performative arts use imagery sound narrative and performances to make alternative relations across space and time and to make transoceanic visions and histories perceptible Focusing on the aesthetic approach this book combines various formats to capture the complex and often complementary interconnectedness of different stories told using various media creating different atmospheres and touching other senses This book is a novel contribution to the study of the Indian Ocean and will be of interest to an interdisciplinary readership including literature cultural studies visual arts performance anthropology and history but also social geography linguistics and music studies

We Do Not Have Borders Keren Weitzberg, 2017-07-25 Though often associated with foreigners and refugees many Somalis have lived in Kenya for generations in many cases since long before the founding of the country Despite their long residency foreign and state officials and Kenyan citizens often perceive the Somali population to be a dangerous and alien presence in the country and charges of civil and human rights abuses have mounted against them in recent years In We Do Not Have Borders Keren Weitzberg examines the historical factors that led to this state of affairs In the process she challenges many of the most fundamental analytical categories such as tribe race and nation that have traditionally shaped African historiography Her interest in the ways in which Somali representations of the past and the present inform one another places her research at the intersection of the disciplines of history political science and anthropology Given tragic events in Kenya and the controversy surrounding al Shabaab We Do Not Have Borders has enormous historical and contemporary significance and provides unique inroads into debates over globalization African sovereignty the resurgence of religion and the multiple meanings of being African

An Introduction to Global Health

Delivery Joia Mukherjee, 2022 In 2019 a child born in Japan will live to the age of 84 whereas a child born in Sierra Leone will only live until the age of 54 1 Similar disparities exist between rich and poor communities within countries 2 These differences in life expectancy are not caused by genetics biology or culture Health inequities are caused by poverty racism a lack of medical care and other social forces that influence health A critical analysis of the historical roots of this gross and systemic inequality and of the political economy that continues inequality is a fundamental part of the study of global health
