1. Why is Pickering "welcomed" by the social appearance of Eliza? What does this make us the audience? (Eliza is a foreigner)
- She looks like such a wonderful figure and her entire "gait" puts her over (27)
- People are open to the audience's perspective but very close the audience respond emotionally but they also identify with the woman's point of view and find the emotions of the character
2. How do Pickering and Higgins differ with respect to women? There is a binary term we use to describe characters refer to the opposite of each other either as personality or manner, what is it?
- Pickering seems to be polite and respectful in the presence of women
- While Higgins is impertinent women just "as a child creature for never what is women to get anything out of her" (28)
- Pickering seems to be kind to Higgins as he is a gentleman and Higgins is brutal and insensitive
- Higgins is not a character who connects with another character, usually the protagonist, and, in an ironic, Higgins makes fun of the main character's personality
- It has two main important characteristics in contrast with the other character, such as, respectively, superficial traits or personal history.

3. How does Eliza behave during this act? How do the others react to her "performance"? Applying the Marxist lens, what does this reveal about the possibility of social mobility?
- She attempts to act like a "lady" with all the "how do you do?"
- She talks in a formal manner when discussing the weather but then slips back into her natural manner of speaking when talking about her aunt who was supposedly killed (30)
- If applying the Marxist lens, this scene suggests that social mobility isn't possible
- Eliza attempts to take on the culture and manners of the bourgeoisie, she is still not accepted, nor can she do it

4. Give a detailed sketch of Henry Higgins. Include both personality and physical characteristics. Min. 5 points.
- Characterization: He is a robust man, vital, appealing man – very healthy looking
- Personality looking
- Energetic and interested in everything and anything that can be studied scientifically (inquisitive)
- He's careless about himself and other people (doesn't care about people's feelings)
- He made his own way, therefore, he is still a likeable character (24)
