

Leadership Experience Essay

1. 1The Leadership Style of Tony Fernandes The leadership style of Tony Fernandes is not very clear as sometimes we see him as an autocratic leader. He instructed his staff to get things done. As an example he wanted to install the mechanism for the handicap people at zero cost. He did not discuss with anyone, his instruction was executed.

He can be also considered as a democratic leader, when once he said during an interview "We have grown AirAsia together, with everybody pitching in with ideas, actively finding new ways to increase efficiency, improving services by effectively combining technology and the personal touch, and aggressively and smartly marketing our brand," through this activity of brainstorming. As an example he decided to expand his route network in 2007. He launched Air Asia X the world's only low-cost, long-haul airline.

He wants Air Asia X to fly to several cities in Australia, China, Middle East and London. Tony's idea is to link the three continents of Australia, Asia and Europe at fares that are a fraction of that charged by traditional legacy carriers. He is also a situational leader. Tony makes decision according to the pressing situation of that present moment. It may not be something which he likes but he makes the decision because the situation forces him to exercise his leadership qualities. For example the recent Iceland Volcano incident in London.

The passengers of Malaysian Airlines (MAS) were stranded in London and MAS refuse to fly back to Kuala Lumpur. Tony extended free transport for all standard passengers and made a great impact in his role as a business leader. He is also a charismatic CEO. His favorite term is "better value". If Tony becomes possible to own the concept outright then he wants it. For example he offers crazy cheap airfares or even free seats in good start. Tony believes the fist of Air Asia's biggest strengths is marketing. He owns the idea of valuing customer's minds, particularly when they feel less inclined to spend.

Erlich, 2017-03-17 These are essays indeed but generally not the sort taught in schools or that I taught for forty years not in the elegant Intro Thesis Proof Conclusion tradition but more in the older tradition of Michel de Montaigne and les essais and of satire That is they are attempts explorations and well also traps where I wander around a bit in apparent innocence and then spring on readers a possibly outrageous idea one they wouldn't have considered for a moment if I hadn't lulled them you into trusting me a bit Some of the essays are also in the satiric tradition where one tries for some startling combinations of learned language and vulgarity short shocker sentences in the midst of some knotty convolutions Anyway the essays usually do come to some fairly clear fairly serious non random conclusion and Views can't be entirely without form So my initial editor and I have arranged them into categories The over arching meta category for most is POLITICS or POLITICS AND CULTURE I was brought up political in Chicago and have remained true to my breeding as a thoroughly political animal and of course I am a student of and participant in at least a couple of cultures
