Equality (International Library of the Philosophy of Education Volume 7) David Cooper,2010-02-25 Educational policy and discussion in Britain and the USA are increasingly dominated by the confused ideology of egalitarianism David E Cooper begins by identifying the principles hidden among the confusions and argues that these necessarily conflict with the ideal of educational excellence in which conflict it is this ideal that must be preserved He goes on to criticize the use of education as a tool for promoting wider social equality focussing especially on the muddles surrounding equal opportunities social mix and reverse discrimination Further chapters criticize the new egalitarianism favoured on epistemological grounds by various sociologists of knowledge in recent years and cultural egalitarianism according to which standard criteria of educational value merely reflect parochial and economic interests Children and Cross-Examination J R Spencer, Michael Lamb, 2012-06-01 In 2009 Stephen Barker was convicted of rape on the evidence of a little girl who was four and a half years old at the trial and about three and a half when first interviewed by the police The high point of the proceedings was the child's appearance as a live witness in order for Barker's counsel to attempt a cross examination This case focused attention on the need imposed by current English law for even tiny children to come to court for a live cross examination In 1989 the Pigot Committee proposed a scheme under which the whole of a young child's evidence including cross examination would be obtained out of court and in advance of trial In 1999 a provision designed to give effect to this was included in the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act but it has not yet been brought into force The full Pigot proposal was implemented however in Western Australia and similar schemes operate in a number of European jurisdictions This book of essays examines a number of these schemes and argues the case for further reforms in the UK The Educational Times, and Journal of the College of Preceptors, 1861-05 A Father's List Steve Allen Bruce, 2013-06-03 Compelling sometimes unbelievable life experiences lead to prayer the Bible and salvation This captivating variety of the personal includes accounts of his early years growing up in an area of toxic hexavalent chromium exposure experiences in missionary basketball and finding true love while walking with his youngest daughter through her encounters with autism and schizophrenia The author's commentary reveals the earnest heart of a father who longs to share all the greater things of life with his grown children Steve Bruce's A Father's List provides surprisingly honest snapshots of how Bruce has approached forgiveness fear spiritual war and sin through restoration by grace mercy faith humility long suffering obedience miracles and love Have you ever loved someone so much that you simply disappear and they are the only one in the room wished you could roll back the hands of time and get a do over had something or someone teach you about humility had someone in your life who has hurt you deeply that you need to forgive sat bedside with a loved one who is suffering experienced a miracle something that you know could have only come from God experienced grace and peace in your heart when you knew you should be falling apart experienced God's mercy in your life and are so grateful it takes you to your knees
