Quarantine The Shadow Wars Book 7 5:

Quarantine Alison Bashford, 2016-07-29 Over five centuries a global archipelago of quarantine stations came to connect the world's oceans from the Mediterranean to the South Pacific from Atlantic coasts to the Red Sea In the process great new carceral structures materialised many surviving into the present as magnificent ruins or as 5 star hotels with a dark tourism edge This book offers new histories and geographies of quarantine islands and isolation hospitals across the world bringing their local and global pasts and present into view An international cast of leading experts examine the enduring historical problems of migration and mobility segregation prevention and protection by states with different interests in freedoms health and commerce With case studies from as far afield as the Red Sea Hong Kong and New Zealand and from the early modern period forward this book provides an invaluable insight into the history of quarantine

Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine Gary Fisher, David Robinson, 2021-09-07 Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine is an anthology of travel accounts by a diverse range of writers and academics Challenging conventional academic authority each contributor writes from memory during the Covid 19 lockdown about a place they have previously visited accompanied by an historical traveller who published an account of the same place As immobility is forced upon us at least for the immediate future we have the chance to reflect Travel Writing in an Age of Global Quarantine presents opportunities to approach a text as a scholar differently We break with the traditional academic rules by inserting ourselves into the narrative and foregrounding the personal subjective elements of literary scholarship Each contributor critiques an historical description of a place about which simultaneously they write a personal account
