year of truce was ended when the strife must needs be fought Which the Landgrave unto King Arthur at Plimiz I had brought
 At Schamfanzon he challenged Gawain to meet him at Barbig I Yet still unavenged was Kingrisein at the hand of Kingrimursel In sooth Vergulacht he rode there and thither had come Gawain And the whole world was ware of their kinship nor might strife be betwixt the twain For the murder Count Eckun t did it and Gawain must they guiltless hold At rest did they lay their quarrel and friends were those heroes bold Then they parted for both would ride thence Vergulacht and the knight Gawain Tho both for the Grail were seeking yet apart would they ride those twain And many a joust must they ride now for he who the Grail would see Sword in hand must he draw anigh it and swift must his seeking be Now all that befell to Gawain the lot of that blameless knight Since he rode forth from fair Schamfanzon if he oft on his way must fight Ye shall ask of those who there saw him since naught may I tell ye here Yet hearken and heed the story and the venture that draweth near One morning Gawain rode gaily o er a grassy plain and green When a shield in the sun fair shining with lance thrust pierced thro was seen And a charger stood beside it that bare women s riding gear And the bridle and aye the housing were of costly stuff and dear And the charger and shield beside it were bound to a linden tree Then he thought Who shall be this woman for valiant I ween is she Since she beareth a shield so knightly If she thinketh with me to fight How then may I best withstand her Were it better to here alight If too long she wrestle with me perchance I were overthrown If hatred or love I shall win here I will fight her on foot alone Yea e en an she were Kamilla who before Laurentium fought Did she live still to battle with me as awhile she for honour sought I would face her nor fear her prowess if here she my foe would be Tho ne er with a maid have I foughten and the chance seemeth ill to me Battle hewn was the shield and dented as Gawain right well espied The nearer he rode unto it and pierced with a lance thrust wide Such token by joust is painted little payment his skill should know Whose hand erst the shield had fashioned an he thought him to paint it so By the trunk of the mighty linden sat a maid on the grass so green And sore did she weep and bewail her and joyless I wot her mien Then around the tree rode Gawain and lo on her knee she bore A knight and she wept above him and grieved with a sorrow sore To be continue in this ebook

Stomach of a King Carole Levin,2013-11-21 In her famous speech to rouse the English troops staking out Tilbury at the mouth of the Thames during the Spanish Armada's campaign Queen Elizabeth I is said to have proclaimed I may have the body of a weak and feeble woman but I have the heart and stomach of a king Whether or not the transcription is accurate the persistent attribution of this provocative statement to England's most studied and celebrated queen illustrates some of the contradictions and cultural anxieties that dominated the collective consciousness of England during a reign that lasted from 1558 until 1603 In The Heart and Stomach of a King Carole Levin explores the myriad ways the unmarried childless Elizabeth represented herself and the ways members of her court foreign ambassadors and subjects represented and responded to her as a public figure In particular Levin interrogates the gender constructions role expectations and beliefs about sexuality that influenced her public persona and the way she was perceived as a female Protestant ruler With a new introduction that situates the book within the emerging genre of cultural biography the second edition of The Heart and Stomach of a King offers insight into the continued fascination with Elizabeth I and her reign

Confederate Sheet Music E. Lawrence Abel,2015-06-14 During the American Civil War songs united and inspired people on both sides The North had a well established music publishing industry when the war broke out but the South had no such industry The importance of music as an expression of the South's beliefs was obvious as one music publisher said The South must not only fight her own battles but sing her own songs and dance to music composed by her own children Southern entrepreneurs quickly rose to the challenge This reference book is distinguished by three major differences from previously published works First it lists sheet music that is no longer extant and listed nowhere else Second it gives complete lyrics for all extant songs a rich source for researchers And third a brief historical background has been provided for many of the songs Each entry provides as much of the following as possible staying faithful to the typography of each title page the title as published names of all lyricists composers and publishers dates of publication cities of publication and if applicable the names of catalogs or magazines in which the song appeared Music published in Southern cities under Federal occupation is excluded
