Right My College Application Essay Christine Gacharna, 2023-05-12 The college application essay uses a completely different rhetorical mode from the typical five point essays high schoolers are used to writing and that's the catch 22 most students won't learn about rhetorical modes and organizational methods until their undergraduate English courses only first you have to get in In this post COVID era many colleges and universities have made standardized test scores optional for admission which puts even more pressure on students to write an essay that separates them from others in a sea of highly qualified applicants Right My College Application Essay bridges the gap between high school English lit and academic writing at the undergraduate level starting with the college application essay This step by step guide uses powerful visuals easy to follow instructions and sample student essays to guide students in writing organizing and polishing a college application essay that weaves in personal variables to help make them jump off the page Award winning writer newspaper editor former lead faculty and English communications instructor Christine Gacharna spent six years teaching undergraduate writing courses and streamlining the evaluation and assessment of student writing for her faculty peers In this workbook she shares her radically effective trademarked system of Communicate Navigate Punctuate to transform anxiety into a stress free path to crafting a college application essay that helps high school seniors sell themselves to admissions officers land acceptance letters and earn scholarship offers to help them achieve their undergraduate dreams Teaching the Anti-Essay Wesley Phillipson, 2025-10-07 Teaching the Anti Essay helps secondary school English Language Arts ELA teachers introduce literary nonfiction and creative nonfiction essay writing to their students demonstrating how writing is a fun and engaging activity where students can see tremendous value in thinking on paper Meaningful essays are also by default analytical This book offers English teachers and their students 18 different essay prompts that challenge student writers to take calculated risks on paper leading to essays that students can write and want to write allowing them to add something new to the conversation in the process Each chapter explores a unique essay prompt along with rationale the targeted skills teacher models student models and reflections The book is intended to be a tool for change in the English classroom at large by motivating students through tried and tested prompts demonstrating that anyone can write like a journalist a professional blogger a creative nonfiction essayist becoming an author with one's own voice and style This is a great resource for in service middle school and high school ELA teachers and beyond Writing for Scholarly Publication

Christine Pears Casanave, Stephanie Vandrick, 2003-10-17 This collection of first person essays by established authors provides a wealth of support and insights for new and experienced academic writers in language education and multicultural studies Although writing for publication is becoming increasingly important as these fields become both more professional and more competitive few scholars talk candidly about their experiences negotiating a piece of writing into print These essays will help researchers practitioners and graduate students expand their understanding of what it means professionally and personally to write for publication Carefully crafted focused and provocative the chapters in this volume document authors experiences with a range of practical political and personal issues in writing for publication Many portray the hardship and struggle that are not obvious in a finished piece of writing Readers are encouraged to resonate with the events and issues portrayed and to connect the narratives to their own lives Practical information such as contact information for journal and book publishers manuscript guidelines and useful books are included in appendices Although organized thematically the essays in Writing for Scholarly Publication Behind the Scenes in Language Education overlap in many ways as each author considers multiple issues In the Introduction the editors discuss key aspects of writing for scholarly publication such as writing as situated practice issues faced by newcomers the construction of personal identity through writing writing and transparency facets of the interactive nature of scholarly writing and intertwined political issues Part I focuses on issues and concerns faced by Newcomers In Part II Negotiating and Interacting the essays closely examine the interactions among authors editors manuscript reviewers and collaborators these interactions tend to be the least often discussed and these essays therefore offer readers fascinating insights into the sensitive social political and personal relationships among the many players in the scholarly writing game Identity Construction is addressed in Part III where authors share their experiences with and reflections on the ways that professional writing helps them construct their identities as writers and scholars The essays in Part IV From the Periphery help redefine what the notion of periphery might mean from a concept with a negative connotation of outsider to a positive connotation of active and unconventional participant

Pain Woman Takes Your Keys, and Other Essays from a Nervous System Sonya Huber, 2017 Rate your pain on a scale of one to ten What about on a scale of spicy to citrus Is it more like a lava lamp or a mosaic Pain though a universal element of human experience is dimly understood and sometimes barely managed Pain Woman Takes Your Keys and Other Essays from a Nervous System is a collection of literary and experimental essays about living with chronic pain Sonya Huber moves away from a linear narrative to step through the doorway into pain itself into that strange unbounded reality Although the essays are personal in nature this collection is not a record of the author's specific condition but an exploration that transcends pain's airless and constraining world and focuses on its edges from wild and widely ranging angles Huber addresses the nature and experience of invisible disability including the challenges of gender bias in our health care system the search for effective treatment options and the difficulty of articulating chronic pain She makes pain a lens of inquiry and lyricism finds its humor and complexity describes its irascible character and explores its temperature taste and even its beauty
