Cryptology Richard E. Klima,Neil P. Sigmon,2012-06-20 Easily Accessible to Students with Nontechnical Backgrounds In a clear nontechnical manner Cryptology Classical and Modern with Maplets explains how fundamental mathematical concepts are the bases of cryptographic algorithms Designed for students with no background in college level mathematics the book assumes minimal mathematical prerequisite Secondary Education Journal ,1983 Resources in Education ,1997 Teaching Children Mathematics ,1994 Introduction to Probability with Mathematica Kevin J. Hastings,2000-11-27 Newcomers to the world of probability face several potential stumbling blocks They often struggle with key concepts sample space random variable distribution and expectation they must regularly confront integration infrequently mastered in calculus classes and they must labor over lengthy cumbersome calculations Introduction to Probability with Mathematica is a groundbreaking text that uses a powerful computer algebra system as a pedagogical tool for learning and using probability Its clever use of simulation to illustrate concepts and motivate important theorems gives it an important and unique place in the library of probability theory The author smoothly integrates the technology with the traditional approach and subject matter thereby augmenting rather than overpowering it This book lives and breathes in the sense that not only can it be read and studied in an armchair but each section also exists as a fully executable Mathematica notebook on the CRC Web site Students will find Introduction to Probability with Mathematica an engaging accessible yet challenging way to venture into the fascinating subject of probability Becoming a Better Teacher Giselle O. Martin-Kniep,2000 Provides K 12 educators with information on some of the most effective teaching and learning tools available today Each of these innovations has a long history of use and has been studied and evaluated in a variety of settings Innovations were chosen because they foster a student centered classroo Business Optimization Using Mathematical Programming Josef Kallrath,2021-08-31 This book presents a structured approach to formulate model and solve mathematical optimization problems for a wide range of real world situations Among the problems covered are production distribution and supply chain planning scheduling vehicle routing as well as cutting stock packing and nesting The optimization techniques used to solve the problems are primarily linear mixed integer linear nonlinear and mixed integer nonlinear programming The book also covers important considerations for solving real world optimization problems such as dealing with valid inequalities and symmetry during the modeling phase but also data interfacing and visualization of results in a more and more digitized world The broad range of ideas and approaches presented helps the reader to learn how to model a variety of problems from process industry paper and metals industry the energy sector and logistics using mathematical optimization techniques ENC Focus ,2001 Making Schools Work for Every Child ,2000

Introductory Incompressible Fluid Mechanics Frank H. Berkshire, Simon J. A. Malham, J. Trevor Stuart, 2021-12-02 This textbook gives a comprehensive accessible introduction to the mathematics of incompressible fluid mechanics and its many applications

Differential Equations and Dynamical Systems Lawrence Perko, 2013-11-21 Mathematics is playing an ever more important role in the physical and biological sciences provoking a blurring of boundaries between scientific disciplines and a resurgence of interest in the modern as well as the classical techniques of applied mathematics This renewal of interest both in research and teaching has led to the establishment of the series Texts in Applied Mathematics TAM The development of new courses is a natural consequence of a high level of excitement on the research frontier as newer techniques such as numerical and symbolic computer systems dynamical systems and chaos mix with and reinforce the traditional methods of applied mathematics Thus the purpose of this textbook series is to meet the current and future needs of these advances and encourage the teaching of new courses TAM will publish textbooks suitable for use in advanced undergraduate and beginning graduate courses and will complement the Applied Mathematical Sciences AMS series which will focus on advanced textbooks and research level monographs

When Life is Linear Tim Chartier, 2015-01-07 From simulating complex phenomenon on supercomputers to storing the coordinates needed in modern 3D printing data is a huge and growing part of our world A major tool to manipulate and study this data is linear algebra When Life is Linear introduces concepts of matrix algebra with an emphasis on application particularly in the fields of computer graphics and data mining Readers will learn to make an image transparent compress an image and rotate a 3D wireframe model In data mining readers will use linear algebra to read zip codes on envelopes and encrypt sensitive information Chartier details methods behind web search utilized by such companies as Google and algorithms for sports ranking which have been applied to creating brackets for March Madness and predict outcomes in FIFA World Cup soccer The book can serve as its own resource or to supplement a course on linear algebra

Transform Your Math Class Using Asset-Based Teaching for Grades 6-12 Michael D. Steele, Joleigh Honey, 2024-07-19 Foster a love of mathematics by creating a more inclusive and empowering learning environment through asset based teaching An asset based perspective on math education means starting with what students already know instead of focusing on what's missing This approach elevates student thinking and reasoning skills In this way educators acknowledge that all students bring prior experiences strengths talents and resources to the learning process and can contribute meaningfully in an authentic learning environment Transform Your Math Class Using Asset Based Teaching for Grades 6-12 provides insight into asset based perspectives in mathematics education to create an environment where all students feel valued and capable of being doers of mathematics In the book Michael Steele and Joleigh Honey highlight the importance of using language instructional routines and systemic structure that positively impact student engagement their math identity and ultimately their outcomes Providing a wealth of knowledge and practical strategies that can be used to transform math classrooms into inclusive supportive and empowering learning environments this book Introduces an asset based perspective that focuses on students strengths assets and potential to learn mathematics Includes a variety of frameworks and tools that teachers can use to build and grow their sense of asset based perspectives Offers strategies for promoting a growth mindset in mathematics encouraging productive struggle in math and promoting equitable math instruction Supports teachers in reflecting on their decisions self awareness and self management Includes a companion online study guide to support teachers individually or as part of a professional learning community Adopting asset based perspectives is about movement over time not about flipping a switch This book paves the path for an asset based journey that ultimately helps to transform our math classrooms and advance all students learning and development Success Without School Jean Proffitt Nunnally, 2022-04-15 Consequences of the ongoing pandemic have seriously affected educational systems in the U S and around the world School closures and the opportunities or nightmares of remote learning have caused many parents to reconsider options for schooling their children Alternatives to going back to conventional school are currently hot topics strongly motivated by growing racism and the social bullying that confront many youngsters and teens in today s school environment New Yorker Magazine June 21 2021 The Rise of Black Homeschooling Jean Nunnally s memoir of her trials and triumphs in unschooling her two children from birth to college provides an enlightening insight into the innate learning ability of humans showing how self esteem trust and personal responsibility were preserved and strengthened for herself and her kids Unschooling the author says is the way we have learned throughout time and the way adults learn when they are free to pursue their interests Her book gives an overview of unschooling or self directed learning but so much more Jean not only did the work but her son and daughter are proof that unschooling works They were each accepted in and graduated from prestigious U S colleges and testify in personal reflections at the end of the narrative to the happiness and fulfillment of their elementary and high school years following their passions their hobbies their music their dreams often in stark contrast to the struggles with traditional forms their peers were required to submit to Those unfamiliar with this unique educational approach a subset of homeschooling often argue from misunderstandings of the process What about socializing with their peers Do I have to be a trained teacher they ask Success Without School offers Nunnally s disputation of these and other popular myths surrounding the subject Along the way Jean Nunnally points out aspects of her own transformation from a traditional background and a corporate career to the lesser traveled path of alternative education She explains how her view of school changed and changed her as she proceeded to unschool her children She leaves the reader with an encouraging description of the three jobs of an unschooling parent exposure facilitation and modeling and offers her unique approach to preparing an unschooled teen for college and the specific challenges that required
