

GALATIANS

1:1–5

¹ Paul, an apostle—not from men nor through man but through Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised him from the dead—
² and all the brothers with me,

To the churches of Galatia: ³ Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴ who gave himself for our sins in order to rescue us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵ to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

EXPOSITION

- 1 an apostle Paul begins this epistle by stating his commission as an apostle. In Galatia he had been subjected to the great sorrow of having his apostleship called into question. Does he, therefore, give up his claim to the office and retire from the work? No, not for a moment. He begins his letter to the Galatians by declaring himself to be “an apostle not from men nor through man but through Jesus Christ.” His enemies had said, “Paul was never one of the Savior’s twelve apostles; he is not like those who were trained and educated by Christ Himself. No doubt he has borrowed his doctrine from them, and he is only a retailer of other men’s goods.” “No, no,” says Paul, “I am an apostle as truly as any other of the twelve, ‘not from men nor by men but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead.’”
- 2 and all the brothers Paul loved to associate others with him in his Christian service. He was not one who wanted to ride the high horse and to keep himself aloof from his brothers in Christ. He frequently mentions the true-hearted men who

Reformed Baptist Covenant Theology Phillip D. R. Griffiths, 2022-02-28 God's covenants form the backbone of the Scriptures Understanding these covenants is the key to unlocking the treasures that lay therein This book will enable the reader not only to appreciate redemptive history but to understand more fully his/her position in Christ Griffiths demonstrates the essential fact that there has always been one Church one way of salvation and that all have been and will be saved only through faith in Christ Griffiths eschews the Presbyterian paradigm which believes the Abrahamic Mosaic and Davidic covenants to be of the same substance as the new covenant only differing in regard to their administration Replacing it with essential truth that the new covenant which is the outworking of the eternal covenant of redemption in time is the only covenant of grace Both Old and New Testament believers come under the mediatorship of Christ and are members and recipients of new covenant blessings The author shows how all other covenants what he calls subsidiary covenants are of works and that their function is to magnify the covenant of grace i.e. the new covenant
