raised by the advance of biomedical science and technology We are of course still at the beginning of a revolution in our understanding of human biology scientific medicine and clinical research are scarcely one hundred years old Both the sciences and the technology of medicine until ten or fifteen years ago had the feeling of the 19th century about them we sense that they belonged to an older time that era is ending The next twenty five to fifty years of investigative work belong to neurobiology genetics and reproductive biology The technologies of information processing and imaging will make diagnosis and treatment almost incomprehensible by my generation of physicians Our science and technology will become so powerful that we shall require all of the art and wisdom we can muster to be sure that they remain dedicated as Francis Bacon hoped four centuries ago to the uses of life It is well that as philosophers and physicians we grapple with the issues now when they are relatively simple and while the pace of change is relatively slow We require a strategy for the future that strategy must be worked out by scientists philosophers physicians lawyers theologians and I should like to add artists and poets

Economy with Karma Carlos del Ama,2023-03-27 Karma is the effect of our actions on the lives of others An economy with karma with emphasis and attention on what is done and how what we do benefits others It would contribute to make us generous joyful and may be rich Man is homo faber he identifies himself by what he does not by what he consumes This book is a methodical reflection on the economy as a whole It starts from the concept of property from its origin and motivation analyzing how property is obtain and how it is initially transferred through gift or donation Over time the donations are structured as part of the practice of exchange or barter which is a double mutual donation In exchange more importance is given to the gift received than to the gift given to the point where after the appearance of money whose essence and functions are studied in detail in the book The market appears and the concept of gift is lost after the anonymity of money leaving what was acquires isolated and triumphant and forging the concept of acquisition and purchase Economic theories focus on market analysis and tend to emphasize demand Government s economic policies after Keynes tend to seek formulas to stimulate economic activity through measures that increase demand The emphasis on demand and consumption makes us selfish dissatisfied and unhappy The book s thesis is that the joy of the gift must be recovered by focusing attention on the offer on what is done and offered our acts merge into what we do for others In the process toward the safe path of supply various different political economic systems are analyzed with their strengths and weaknesses We end the book by reflecting on current issues such as the crisis providing suggestions to accelerate economic recovery we analyze the Brexit the economic policy of President Trump and the challenges of the UE In the annexes all mathematical calculations are concentrated and two complementary reflections are included on the economy as a mechanism for the production and distribution of products and on the economy as a language for communication between economic agents The Deal ,2006
