My belief about myself as a learner when I entered the class was a positive one. I attended a college prep school for high school and went to Oregon State University last year. I had plenty of practice with different learning techniques and found what works well for me. I believe I'm more of a visual learner than an auditory learner. It is easier to see a powerpoint and retain the knowledge then listen to a lecture and have the same retention. Entering the class I thought I liked working in groups more than working individually on projects, but that has since changed. I think it is more beneficial to me to work alone because I can get more done. When I entered the class I believed that reading the material closer to the due date was a better idea because I may not remember what I had read if I didn't.

What I have discovered about myself, as a learner over the term is vast. I learned that I can read the material way in advance and just briefly skim over the text and remember just about everything, were as I thought reading closer was more beneficial. I also learned that working in groups really isn't my specialty. I prefer working by myself because I'm able to get a lot more done and not have to worry about other people forgetting their part of the project. I don't like having to worry about other people not following through. I also learned that looking at the daily record in advanced helped me

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria

Evangelism in an Age of Despair Andrew Root,2025-03-11 Evangelism is a contested even conflicted word But churches are declining in numbers and resources What if we aren t thinking about evangelism in the right way culturally or theologically This book contextualizes evangelism in our late modern times and reimagines what the call to outreach means in today s world Our sad times are made sadder by the realization that our all out pursuit of happiness has made us stressed anxious lonely and depressed says leading practical theologian Andrew Root The French thinker Michel de Montaigne taught us to focus on making ourselves happy but Blaise Pascal pointed out that we are creatures of soul as much as self so happiness does not satisfy Root offers a vision for how a theology of consolation can shape a hopeful approach to evangelism We all need consolation others to care for us in our sadness if we can find such a minister and lean into our sorrow we will find the presence of Jesus Christ Root uses a fictional church to show rather than tell us how consolation evangelism works For support he looks to the ministries of Gregory of Nyssa and his sister Macrina Jean Gerson Johann von Staupitz and Martin Luther who all contend that consolation is central to our transformation into the life of God Difficult Empathy and Rhetorical Encounters Eric Leake, 2023-08-04 Difficult Empathy takes up the question of empathy as fundamentally a rhetorical concern focusing on the ways we encounter and understand one another in what we read and write hear and say The book centres around the argument that empathy as a rhetorical event occurs not simply in the minds of individuals but as a product of the rhetorical situations practices cultures and values in which we engage Rather than identifying empathy as a cure all or jettisoning the concept altogether the author acknowledges empathy s potential as well as its limitations by focusing on what makes empathy a hard and ultimately worthwhile practice This nuanced and original study will interest scholars working at the intersection of rhetoric and composition with empathy as well as those studying empathy in fields such as critical and cultural theory politics media analysis social psychology and the cognitive humanities
