

Information to Examiners

1. General

The mark scheme for each question shows:

- the marks available for each part of the question
- the total marks available for the question
- the typical answer or answers which are expected
- extra information to help the Examiner make his or her judgement
- the Assessment Objectives, level of demand and specification content that each question is intended to cover.

The extra information is aligned to the appropriate answer in the left-hand part of the mark scheme and should only be applied to that item in the mark scheme.

At the beginning of a part of a question a reminder may be given, for example: where consequential marking needs to be considered in a calculation; or the answer may be on the diagram or at a different place on the script.

In general the right-hand side of the mark scheme is there to provide those extra details which confuse the left-hand side of the mark scheme and may be helpful in ensuring the marking is straightforward and consistent.

2. Understanding and understanding

- 201. To ensure that the marking is consistent across the whole of the mark scheme, the marking is consistent with the marking of the marking scheme. Each of the following marking points is a marking point.
- 202. To ensure that the marking is consistent across the whole of the mark scheme, the marking is consistent with the marking of the marking scheme.
- 203. To ensure that the marking is consistent across the whole of the mark scheme, the marking is consistent with the marking of the marking scheme.
- 204. To ensure that the marking is consistent across the whole of the mark scheme, the marking is consistent with the marking of the marking scheme.
