You could adjust receiver type, working mode, angle range and other options in the assistant software.

Please connect main controller of the gimbal to PC through a USB cable. Choose the right COM port and click "Connect". If the connection is successful, the gimbal would stop rotating to protect your device.

After parameters setup finishes, click "Run Gimbal" in the "Tool" page and push sticks and toggle switches to ensure the gimbal works correctly.

Also, you could click the question mark on the top right corner to open the user manual, but make sure you have installed the software for reading.
