Bonis,1997 The Cambridge Companion to Business and Human Rights Law Ilias Bantekas,Michael Ashley Stein,2021-09-09 An innovative textbook setting out a systematic approach to business and human rights China in the Global Economy Environmental Taxes Recent Developments in China and OECD Countries OECD,1999-09-02 This volume presents recent developments in designing and implementing environmental taxes in China and OECD countries Morocco

International Monetary Fund. Middle East and Central Asia Dept.,2018-03-12 This Selected Issues paper examines the distributional effects of tax reforms in Morocco Overall the performance of Morocco s tax system is satisfactory but there is scope to strengthen it and make it more equitable and less distortive Morocco would benefit from a comprehensive and well explained tax reform strategy aiming to reduce inequality and boost growth For this a recommended tax reform package should combine several key components for example reducing tax exemptions raising property tax and lowering corporate tax rates At the same time the targeting of social programs should be strengthened Such a reform approach would protect the most vulnerable and help broaden the tax base remove tax distortions and better share the tax burden Law Reform in Developing and Transitional States Timothy Lindsey,2007 Law reform in developing countries has become an increasingly topical subject in recent years A critical issue is why so many law reform projects in developing economies are regarded by their sponsors and recipients as unsuccessful This informative book examines examples of law reform projects in post socialist and post authoritarian states in Asia identifies common problems proposes analytical frameworks for understanding the problems identified Though parallels between Asian models and those in developing states elsewhere in the world are strong the book has been developed to avoid suggestion that the issues covered are somehow peculiarly Asian indeed it is shown that cultural relativist approaches to Asia are unsustainable This is an invaluable reference for those involved in the areas of development economics Asian studies and comparative politics Private Saving in Colombia Mr.Alejandro Lopez Mejia,Mr.Juan Ricardo Ortega,1998-12-01 This paper studies the main determinants of the sharp decline in Colombia s private saving rate which accompanied the steep deterioration of the country s external current account deficit in the 1990s The paper rejects current arguments pointing to a consumption boom and corporate behavior as the main causes of the decline It concludes that private consumption explained mainly by permanent income has only increased moderately in the 1990s household behavior not corporate behavior determines private saving and tax increases do not entirely explain the fall of private saving Thus reliance on external saving could be reduced by increasing public saving
