Eating with Jesus Robert D. Cornwall, 2025-03-31 You go to church on a Sunday morning It s Communion Sunday and when it comes time for Communion the presider issues an invitation on behalf of Jesus because it s Jesus table not the church s table However this invitation includes qualifiers Are you baptized Are you a member of the denomination Do you affirm the church s doctrinal statement Have you repented of your sins In other words are you worthy In Eating with Jesus Robert Cornwall asks whether these fences around Christ s table reflect Jesus practice of table fellowship If not shouldn t the fences be removed so that everyone is welcome at Christ s table where followers of Jesus might be nourished for missional service in the world while strangers might experience God s love and grace at the same table Through foundational essays and meditations on the stories of Jesus practice of table fellowship Cornwall invites the reader to envision how a truly open eucharistic table where the traditional fences are removed might serve as a crossroads where divine encounters with Jesus can occur that make available God s grace to all who gather at the table through the ministrations of the Holy Spirit wherever they may be on their spiritual journey

Ruzbihan Baqli Carl W. Ernst, 2013-01-11 The first full length study devoted to the life and mystical experiences of one of the outstanding figures in Persian Sufism

Power and the Powers Andrew R. Hardy, Richard Whitehouse, Dan Yarnell, 2015-10-12 Missio Dei by its very nature requires the church to come to terms with the exercise of power both internally and externally as it confronts the world Tune in to any newscast or glance at the daily newspaper and it immediately becomes clear that the use and abuse of power is a live issue The more we focus on the twists and turns of current events the more it appears that uncorrupted exercise of power eludes the human race All too often we become uneasily aware that there are powers lying behind the power that any of us wields whether it is in the family the classroom on the shop floor in the boardroom or in churches Effective missional leadership involves creative engagement with the powers at work in the world without being debased by them This book sets out to address the issue of the use and misuse of power from biblical theological and practical perspectives The authors bring their theological pastoral missionary and personal experience to their task in order to inform challenge and invite readers into a responsible use of the powers that God has put into the hands of each one of us to achieve his purposes in the world
