Practical Apologetics How To Carry Out The Great Commission:

Practical Apologetics Alex Nicassio, 2014-11-06 Apologetics is the art of understanding the Good News and explaining it to others. Many Christians are lost without an understanding of the Gospel even though they claim to fully understand it. It is the duty of all Christians to properly understand the Gospel good news and once understood to explain it to others so that they may participate in the new Covenant offered by Christ. Most Christians already participate in the Gospel but many who think they know the Gospel are completely mistaken and do not participate in the one Church established by Christ. They are cut off from the Body of Christ. Please reach out and help your lost brothers and sisters. How In this book we present the method for practical Apologetics as well as initial resources to help understand and deliver the facts of Christianity to Christians.

Retrieving Apologetics Glenn B. Siniscalchi, 2016-01-07 Given the pope's recent statements of their desires to implement the New Evangelization it is imperative that Catholic theologians and other intellectually engaged laypersons retrieve the vital discipline of apologetics. For the New Evangelization places particular emphasis on reproposing the Gospel to those who have experienced a crisis of faith due to secularization. One salient method of Catholic apologetics used to be characterized by three demonstrations each of which assumes the conclusions established in the previous steps. Some might think that this classical method of apologetics has been abandoned in the postconciliar Church but Siniscalchi's book updates it. Unlike the classical apologetics of the preconciliar era Siniscalchi engages contemporary scholarship in a variety of academic disciplines such as philosophy, history, biblical studies, sociology, and theology to develop the steps that are necessary for showing the reasonableness of faith.
