3-4 Stakeholders for payroll administration within the company are all employees, as well as accounting, human resources and management.

3-5 External stakeholders for payroll administration include the Canada Revenue Agency, Revenue Quebec, provincial/territorial agencies, courts, unions, pension administrators, group benefit insurance carriers, charities and any other party for which there are deductions from the employees' wages.

Suggested Exercises:

3-1 The seven criteria should be discussed with the class, depending on what personal information the instructor is willing to share. In most situations the instructor will be an employee.

3-2 The different criteria used in Quebec should be compared to the Canada Revenue Agency. Discussions should lead to students to understand that the differences are more semantic than substantive and either set of criteria will likely lead to the same determination.

3-3 The exercise is expected to entice a variety of different opinions to be expressed as to why such industries of the "national interest". Responses will vary by class.
