Wertz, 2012-12-06 Roger D Werking Head Attitude Determination and Control Section National Aeronautics and Space Administration Goddard Space Flight Center Extensive work has been done for many years in the areas of attitude determination attitude prediction and attitude control During this time it has been difficult to obtain reference material that provided a comprehensive overview of attitude support activities This lack of reference material has made it difficult for those not intimately involved in attitude functions to become acquainted with the ideas and activities which are essential to understanding the various aspects of spacecraft attitude support As a result I felt the need for a document which could be used by a variety of persons to obtain an understanding of the work which has been done in support of spacecraft attitude objectives It is believed that this book prepared by the Computer Sciences Corporation under the able direction of Dr James Wertz provides this type of reference This book can serve as a reference for individuals involved in mission planning attitude determination and attitude dynamics an introductory textbook for students and professionals starting in this field an information source for experimenters or others involved in spacecraft related work who need information on spacecraft orientation and how it is determined but who have neither the time nor the resources to pursue the varied literature on this subject and a tool for encouraging those who could expand this discipline to do so because much remains to be done to satisfy future needs     Learning Directory ,1970     Prentice Hall Exploring Life Science Anthea Maton,1997     Magill's Survey of Science: 946-1430 The development of the Mercury Project Frank Northen Magill,1989     The Illustrated London News ,1869     The Athenaeum ,1875
