Christianity, Islam and Atheism William Kilpatrick, 2012-09-26 For many Americans the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 was the first time they had considered Islam Were the terrorists motivated by the true dictates of their religion or had they hijacked Islam as well as the planes in a political cause unrelated to the teachings of Muhammad Christianity Islam and Atheism argues that Islam is a religion of conquest and subjugation and that in spite of 9 11 and thousands of other terrorist attacks throughout the world many in the West still do not know or admit this because it conflicts with their multiculturalism and their belief in the equivalence of all cultures and religions To meet the challenge from Islam Christians need to know more about the important differences between Islam and Christianity yet many have been lulled into complacency by the misleading and largely unexamined assumption that the two religions are similar The time that Christians spend in pursuing common ground is time that Islamic activists will use to press their radical agenda In addition to challenging both the multicultural and common ground approaches William Kilpatrick also exposes the role played by atheists and secularists in advancing Islam Despite paying lip service to freedom radical secularists serve as enablers of radical Islam The civil liberties that the West enjoys are the fruit of Christian civilization Kilpatrick argues and only a reawakened Christianity can defend them against Islam s advance Data Book of Social Studies Materials and Resources

Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book s first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book
