Clinical Cases in Augmentative and Alternative Communication

Martine M. Smith, 2023-03-15 Clinical Cases in Augmentative and Alternative Communication provides a concise introduction to the rapidly expanding field of augmentative and alternative communication AAC. It brings together internationally renowned experts in the field to discuss its application and outline key principles of intervention to support communication using AAC. Carefully grounded in evidence based clinical practice, the book highlights the diversity of potential applications for AAC across a wide range of client groups including children and adults with developmental disabilities as well as adults with acquired impairments. Most of the chapters are structured as case reports following CARE guidelines and highlight key principles for intervention that are grounded in clinical practice. The chapters also include reflections on communication through AAC and the valuable contributions that AAC can make in supporting independence and enhancing quality of life. This accessible book is ideal reading for students, novice clinicians in the fields of speech and language therapy or pathology and professionals who are new to this area of clinical practice.

Speech and Language Therapy Myra Kersner, Jannet A.

Wright, 2013-03-01 Now in its second edition Speech and Language Therapy the decision making process when working with children reveals how recent research and changes in health and education services have affected the decision making process in the assessment and management of children with speech and language problems. With individual chapters written by experts in their field, this book illustrates how the decisions made by practitioners may vary within different work settings. Shows how these decisions may need to be adapted when working with specific client groups. Explores how such decisions are part of effective evidence based practice. Offers an overview of the skills required by the developing professional. Provides insight into working as a newly qualified therapist in the current job market. Rigorously underpinned with current research and revised legislation, this is an important textbook for speech and language therapy students, potential students and specialist teachers in training. Speech and Language Therapy the decision making process when working with children will also be relevant to newly qualified therapists, therapists returning to the profession, specialist teachers and Special Educational Needs Coordinators.
