Significant Food is a collaborative work of textual analysis and criticism that chews on the role and prominence of food in American literature The volume offers close readings of many well known and some less well known examples of American writing as studied through the food culture sensibilities of a well stocked cupboard of contributors who offer their analyses for public consumption Editors Jeff Birkenstein and Robert C Hauhart find that literary criticism has focused on the role food plays in literary production to a greater extent than recognized at first glance and that its role has become increasingly common only in the last two decades Still while there is critical commentary regarding authors use of food across the expanse of American literature there has been a lack of a unifying critical theory to guide these analyses Birkenstein and Hauhart offer the theory of significant food a method that asks literary critics to evaluate and assess the extent nature and role that food plays in literary production When food and food moments are used intensively and significantly within the drama memoir poem novel short story or other writing then one can say that it has achieved a status that makes it indispensable to the work at hand Growing up in the Nation's Capital Carolyn Pichet, 2013-03-29 Growing Up in the Nations Capital invites the reader to spend some time with Carolyn Pichet as she tells the stories of her childhood growing up in Washington D C in the 1940s Growing from her recollections of the caring and distinctive people who lived around her and creating a village in the midst of the city this memoir does not tie itself down with exhaustively documented research Instead it liberates the members of the community to come to life through the stories that make up its account of the authors early years Over the span of thirteen chapters Growing Up in the Nations Capital introduces the authors family describes her humble beginnings paints a picture of family life walks around the local community recounts childhood adventures recalls family road trips and follows the author on her journey to adulthood If you have wondered what goes on in the nations capital in the places beyond the shadows of monuments and outside the halls of power then Growing Up in the Nations Capital will give you an intimate personal and memorable guided tour of one womans life and help you to become familiar with the lives of all of the members of her urban village B. Smith Cooks Southern-Style Barbara Smith, 2009-11-03 In B Smith's Southern Cooking A Z she explores the rich and diverse cuisines of the American South from Cajun to creole Soul food to New Southern Laced with engaging anecdotes about culture and history Smith's recipes equal parts instructive and entertaining Hers isn't a cookbook for elaborate dinner parties or calorie counters but rather a guide for those unafraid to smoke a pig and toss back a few sliders From Smith's mouthwatering catfish fingers to her Jambalaya her Kentucky Burgoo and the entertaining stories she tells while teaching you her tricks B Smith's Southern Cooking A Z will show even the most skeptical reader why the Wall Street Journal has hailed her as One of the most formidable rivals of Martha Stewart

Gendering Global Transformations Chima J. Korieh, Philomina E Okeke-Ihejirika, 2008-11-19 This book employs gender as a category of analysis to capture the various ways men and women relate in society and the structures that define these relationships and place boundaries on them It presents alternative conceptual and theoretical approaches that tease out the nuances of gender as mediated by culture race and identity in a globalizing world Soldiers, 1972 Healthy at Last Eric Adams, 2021-10-12 Brooklyn Borough president and Democratic nominee for New York City mayor Eric Adams is on a mission to tackle one of the most stubborn health problems in the country chronic disease in the African American community African Americans are heavier and sicker than any other group in the U S with nearly half of all Black adults suffering from some form of cardiovascular disease After Adams woke up with severe vision loss one day in 2016 he learned that he was one of the nearly 5 million Black people living with diabetes and according to his doctor he would have it for the rest of his life A police officer for more than two decades Adams was a connoisseur of the fast food dollar menu Like so many Americans with stressful jobs the last thing he wanted to think about was eating healthfully Fast food was easy cheap and comfortable His diet followed him from the squad car to the state senate and then to Brooklyn Borough Hall where it finally caught up with him But Adams was not ready to become a statistic There was a better option besides medication and shots of insulin food Within three months of adopting a plant based diet he lost 35 pounds lowered his cholesterol by 30 points restored his vision and reversed his diabetes Now he is on a mission to revolutionize the health of not just the borough of Brooklyn but of African Americans across the country Armed with the hard science and real life stories of those who have transformed their bodies by changing their diet Adams shares the key steps for a healthy active life With this book he shows readers how to avoid processed foods cut down on salt get more fiber and substitute beef chicken pork and dairy with delicious plant based alternatives In the process he explores the origins of soul food a cuisine deeply important to the Black community but also one rooted in the horrors of slavery and how it can be reimagined with healthy alternatives Features more than 50 recipes from celebrities and health experts including Paul McCartney Queen Afua Jenn Claiborne Bryant Jennings Charity Morgan Moby and more The journey to good health begins in the kitchen not the hospital bed Fried Chicken Rebecca Lang, 2015-05-26 An irresistible cookbook featuring more than 50 family friendly fried chicken recipes including classic Southern globally influenced and skillet and deep fried variations Fried chicken is comfort food at its finest Served alongside a biscuit atop waffles or just on its own fried chicken is one of the most universally loved foods around In Fried Chicken Southern chef Rebecca Lang collects 50 of the most tantalizing crowd pleasing variations on the classic There are perennial favorites like Buttermilk Soaked Bacon Fried Chicken Smothered in Gravy Tennessee Hot Chicken kid friendly Chicken Fingers and even Gluten Free Southern Fried Chicken Also featured are internationally inspired recipes such as Saigon Street Wings Chinese Lollipop Wings Mexican Lime Fried Chicken Tacos and Korean Fried Chicken with Gochujang Sauce All of these recipes are impeccably tested foolproof and will have the whole family singing the praises of perfectly fried
