Kickboxing Geishas Veronica Chambers, 2007-01-09 Forget the stereotypes Today's Japanese women are shattering them breaking the bonds of tradition and dramatically transforming their culture Shopping crazed schoolgirls in Hello Kitty costumes and the Harajuku girls Gwen Stefani helped make so popular have grabbed the media's attention But as critically acclaimed author Veronica Chambers has discovered through years of returning to Japan and interviewing Japanese women the more interesting story is that of the legions of everyday women from the office suites to radio and TV studios to the worlds of art and fashion and on to the halls of government who have kicked off a revolution in their country Japanese men hardly know what has hit them In a single generation women in Japan have rewritten the rules in both the bedroom and the boardroom Not a day goes by in Japan that a powerful woman doesn't make the front page of the newspapers In the face of still fierce sexism a new breed of women is breaking through the rice paper ceiling of Japan's salary man dominated corporate culture The women are traveling the world while the men stay at home and returning with a cosmopolitan sophistication that is injecting an edgy stylish internationalism into Japanese life So many women are happily delaying marriage into their thirties labeled losing dogs and yet loving their liberated lives that the country's birth rate is in crisis With her keen eye for all facets of Japanese life Veronica Chambers travels through the exciting world of Japan's new modern women to introduce these kickboxing geishas and the stories of their lives the wildly popular young hip hop DJ the TV chef who is also a government minister the entrepreneur who founded a market research firm specializing in charting the tastes of the teenage girls driving the country's GNC gross national cool and the Osaka assembly woman who came out publicly as a lesbian the first openly gay politician in the country Taking readers deep into these women's lives and giving the lie to the condescending stereotypes Chambers reveals the vibrant dynamic and fascinating true story of the Japanese women we've never met Kickboxing Geishas is an entrancing journey into the exciting bold stylish new Japan these women are making Tell Us a Story Shirley Motley Portwood, 2000 Supplemented by recollections from the present era Tell Us a Story is a colorful mosaic of African American autobiography and family history set in Springfield Illinois and in rural southern Illinois Missouri and Arkansas from the 1920s through the 1950s Shirley Motley Portwood shares rural African American family and community history through a collection of vignettes about the Motley family Initially transcribed accounts of the Motleys rich oral history these stories have been passed among family members for nearly fifty years In addition to her personal memories Portwood presents interviews with her father three brothers and two sisters plus notes and recollections from their annual family reunions The result is a composite view of the Motley family A historian Portwood enhances the Motley family story by investigating primary data such as census marriage school and land records newspaper accounts city directories and other sources The backbone of this saga however is oral history gathered from five generations extending back to Portwood's grandparents born more than one hundred years ago Information regarding two earlier generations her great grandfather and great great grandparents who were slaves is based on historical research into state archives county and local records plantation records and manuscript censuses A rich source for this material the Motley family reunions are week long retreats where four generations gather at the John Motley house in Burlington Connecticut the Portwood home in Godfrey Illinois or other locations Here the Motleys all natural storytellers pass on the family traditions The stories ranging from humorous to poignant reveal much about the culture and history of African Americans especially those from nonurban areas Like many rural African Americans the Motleys have a rich and often joyful family history with traditions reaching back to the slave past They have known the harsh poverty that made even the necessities difficult to obtain and the racial prejudice that divided whites and blacks during the era of Jim Crow segregation and inequality yet they have kept a tremendous faith in self improvement through hard work and education Jet, 1997-09-29 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Authenticity in the Kitchen Richard Hosking, 2006 The Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery is a premier English conference on this topic The subjects range from the food of medieval English and Spanish Jews wild boar in Europe the identity of liquamen and other Roman sauces the production of vinegar in the Philippines the nature of Indian restaurant food and food in 19th century Amsterdam Reading, Writing, and Rising Up Linda Christensen, 2000 Give students the power of language by using the inspiring ideas in this very readable book The Complete Works: Novels, Short Stories, Poems, Plays, Memoirs, Travel Sketches, Letters and Essays (Illustrated Edition) Robert Louis Stevenson, 2017-07-31 Robert Louis Stevenson 1850-1894 was a Scottish novelist poet essayist and travel writer His most

The Novels and Tales of Robert Louis Stevenson Robert Louis Stevenson, 1898 The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians. While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available, they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s. In The New Orleans of Fiction: A Research Guide, James A. Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980. The synopses include plot summaries, names of major characters, and an indication of physical settings. An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century, while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors, some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources. Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis, the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies, i.e., class, ethnicity, gender, immigrant experience, and race. The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading, particularly since genre, juvenile, and young adult fiction, as well as literary fiction, are included.

Reimagining the European Family P. Simpson, 2013-12-18 Reimagining the Family explores contemporary films and literature about the effects of legal and illegal immigration on the structure and the stories of the contemporary European family, with a focus on Germany.

The Color Purple Harold Bloom, 2008 Presents a collection of critical essays about Alice Walker's The Color Purple.

The Other Side of Terror Erica R. Edwards, 2021-08-10 WINNER 2022 John Hope Franklin Prize given by the American Studies Association HONORABLE MENTION 2022 Gloria E. Anzaldúa Book Prize given by the National Women's Studies Association Reveals the troubling intimacy between Black women and the making of US global power. The year 1968 marked both the height of the worldwide Black liberation struggle and a turning point for the global reach of American power, which was built on the counterinsurgency honed on Black and other oppressed populations at home. The next five decades saw the consolidation of the culture of the American empire through what Erica R. Edwards calls the imperial grammars of blackness. This is a story of state power at its most devious and most absurd, and at the same time a literary history of Black feminist radicalism at its most trenchant. Edwards reveals how the long war on terror, beginning with the late Cold War campaign against organizations like the Black Panther Party for Self Defense and the Black Liberation Army, has relied on the labor and the fantasies of Black women to justify the imperial spread of capitalism. Black feminist writers not only understood that this would demand a shift in racial gendered power but crafted ways of surviving it. The Other Side of Terror offers an interdisciplinary Black feminist analysis of militarism, security, policing, diversity, representation, intersectionality, and resistance while discussing a wide array of literary and cultural texts from the unpublished work of Black radical feminist

June Jordan to the memoirs of Condoleezza Rice to the television series Scandal With clear moving prose Edwards chronicles Black feminist organizing and writing on the other side of terror which tracked changes in racial power transformed African American literature and Black studies and predicted the crises of our current era with unsettling accuracy Jet,1997-09-29 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Global Appetites Allison Carruth,2013-05-31 This literary study explores how agribusiness industrial agriculture and countercultural food movements underpin modern American conceptions of global power Hidden Mercies Serena Miller,2013-04-09 At seventeen Tobias Miller smashed his cousin's car into a tree killing his brother only four hours before he was scheduled to marry Claire Shetler Unable to live with his father's bottomless grief and anger Tobias left the Amish church and ran away to join the Marines Twenty seven years later Tobias now called Tom returns to Mt Hope Ohio a wounded decorated Marine helicopter pilot and rents an apartment over Claire's workshop A widowed Amish midwife Claire is struggling to support her family When Tom rents her room she does not recognize the disfigured soldier as the boy she once knew She only sees the money as a godsend though she is nervous about having a strange man so close by Claire never dreams that she will end up falling in love with a battle scarred soldier Provided by publisher Consumption and Identity in Asian American Coming-of-Age Novels Jennifer Ho,2013-09-13 This interdisciplinary study examines the theme of consumption in Asian American literature connection representations of cooking and eating with ethnic identity formation Using four discrete modes of identification historic pride consumerism mourning and fusion Jennifer Ho examines how Asian American adolescents challenge and revise their cultural legacies and experiment with alternative ethnic affiliations through their relationships to food US Black Engineer & IT,1998-07
