The Imperial Army Project Douglas E. Delaney, 2018-01-25 How did British authorities manage to secure the commitment of large dominion and Indian armies that could plan fight shoot communicate and sustain themselves in concert with the British Army and with each other during the era of the two world wars What did the British want from the dominion and Indian armies and how did they go about trying to get it Douglas E Delaney seeks to answer these questions to understand whether the imperial army project was successful Answering these questions requires a long term perspective one that begins with efforts to fix the armies of the British Empire in the aftermath of their desultory performance in South Africa 1899 1903 and follows through to the high point of imperial military cooperation during the Second World War Based on multi archival research conducted in six different countries on four continents Delaney argues that the military compatibility of the British Empire armies was the product of a deliberate and enduring imperial army project one that aimed at standardizing and piecing together the armies of the empire while at the same time accommodating the burgeoning autonomy of the dominions and even India At its core this book is really about how a military coalition worked Army Orders Great Britain. War Office, 1915 South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa's changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world New Forms of Human Trafficking Anabela Miranda Rodrigues, Maria João Guia, 2024-03-01 This book analyses new forms of human trafficking taking into account the transposition of the Directive 2011/36/UE which sets out minimum standards to be applied throughout the European Union in preventing and combating trafficking in human beings and protecting its victims Sexual exploitation of trafficked persons is at its highest rate After COVID 19 new forms of sexual exploitation have been identified specifically in the Global South The book analyses new forms of exploitation used by traffickers to coerce victims Combining the perspectives of academic researchers with those of highly skilled professionals from governmental institutions this book is a unique contribution promoting collaboration in preventing and combating human trafficking crime and in raising awareness of this ongoing problem Annual Report South Africa. Department of Defence, 2016 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Kleynhans, Marco Wyss, 2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent's resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation's ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turn sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent's countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations Netherlands Annual Review of Military Studies 2017 Paul A.L. Ducheine, Frans P.B. Osinga, 2017-07-14 With a foreword by Major General Nico Geerts Commander Netherlands

Defence Academy Breda The Netherlands International conflict resolution increasingly involves the use of non military power and non kinetic capabilities alongside military capabilities in the face of hybrid threats In this book counter measures to those threats are addressed by academics with both practical and theoretical experience and knowledge providing strategic and operational insights into non kinetic conflict resolution and on the use of power to influence affect deter or coerce states and non state actors This volume in the NL ARMS series deals with the non kinetic capabilities to address international crises and conflicts and as always views matters from a global perspective Included are chapters on the promise practice and challenges of non kinetic instruments of power the instrumentality of soft power information as a power instrument and manoeuvring in the information environment Russia s use of deception and misinformation in conflict applying counter marketing techniques to fight ISIL using statistics to profile terrorists and employing tools such as Actor and Audience Analysis Such diverse subjects as lawfare the Law of Armed Conflict rules for non kinetic cyber attacks navigation warfare GPS spoofing maritime interception operations and finally as a prerequisite innovative ways for intelligence collection in UN Peacekeeping in Mali come up for discussion The book will provide both professionals such as foreign policy makers and those active in the military services academics at a master level and those with an interest in military law and the law of armed conflict with useful and up to date insights into the wide range of subjects that are contained within it Paul A L Ducheine and Frans P B Osinga are General Officers and full professors at the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda The Netherlands

Specific to this volume in the Series Written by academics with both practical and theoretical experience Addresses counter measures to hybrid crises Offers both strategic and operational insights to non kinetic conflict resolution "ECEG2016-Proceedings of 16th European Conference on e-Government ECEG 2016 " Mitja De Man,Tina Juki,2016-06-02 CROP PROSPECTS AND FOOD SITUATION Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2018-10-29 The report provides a review of the food situation by geographic region a section dedicated to the LIFDCs and a list of countries requiring external assistance for food It also includes a global cereal supply and demand overview to complement the biannual analysis in the Food Outlook publication English in Multilingual South Africa Raymond Hickey,2020 An innovative and insightful exploration of varieties of English in contemporary South Africa Marxism and Migration Genevieve Ritchie,Sara Carpenter,Shahrazad Mojab,2022-08-18 This book approaches migration from Marxist feminist anti imperialist and anti colonial perspectives The present conditions of transnational migration best described as a kind of social expulsion include migrant caravans and detained unaccompanied children in the United States thousands of migrant deaths at sea the razing of self organized refugee camps in Greece and the massive dispersal of populations within and between countries Placing patriarchal capitalism imperialism racialization and fundamentalisms at the center of the analysis Marxism and Migration helps build a more coherent and historically informed discussion of the conditions of migration resettlement and resistance Drawing upon a range of academic disciplines and diverse geopolitical regions the book rethinks migrations from the vantage point of class struggle and seeks to ignite a more robust discussion of critical consciousness racialization militarization and solidarity Flexible Forming for Fluid

Architecture Arno Pronk, 2021-10-11 This book on flexible formwork for fluid architecture is a multi faceted research that covers a broad field from design to material and technology and from history to future developments It offers a pragmatic approach that can be extended with more cases materials techniques and methods for fluid architecture and provides a better understanding of the main aspects of fluid architecture and to help them find the most suitable combinations of all aspects The book is a challenging experience with many new discoveries including two patents one on moulding of fluid surfaces and one on 3D printing of fibre reinforced ice It also features two world records the largest span 30 meters and the highest thin shell structure 30.5 meters in ice as well as a method for the construction of a fully laminated shell structure in insulated glass Special Operations Success James D. Kiras, 2024-10-24

Special Operations Success establishes a new benchmark in military theory in this deeply analytic and innovative work It answers several pressing questions How successful have American special operations been over the past quarter century Are special forces fated to cycles of expansion and misuse Will special forces invariably exceed the authorities granted to them because of they are Is a general theory of special operations feasible given the range of activities and conditions that fall under the category Kiras work is based on two decades of practical teaching and consulting experience within different special operations communities and its analysis and conclusions are designed to inform practitioners policymakers educators and the general public The book develops a framework in the form of a theory comprising capabilities and control for the comprehensively evaluating special operations success and is divided into three parts Part I lays the foundation for a general theory of special operations Part II explores the two component parts of theory capabilities and control and Part III uses various aspects of the theory depending on available information to assess the success of special operations over a twenty year period in the United Kingdom South Africa and the United States The Second World War in East Africa, 1940-1941, 2024-12-16

As a first of its kind this edited collection brings together a variety of chapters dealing with different topics that address where possible most of the participants involved in or affected by the conflict as well as different often neglected aspects of the East Africa campaign of the Second World War In doing so this volume not only makes a definite contribution to the broader historiography and to our understanding of a diverse complex Second World War but will also serve as an impetus for further topical research on an important yet neglected campaign of the war Climate Change Epistemologies in Southern Africa Jörn

Ahrens, Ernst Halbmayer, 2023-05-26 This book investigates the social and cultural dimensions of climate change in Southern Africa focusing on how knowledge about climate change is conceived and conveyed Despite contributing very little to the global production of emissions the African continent looks set to be the hardest hit by climate change Adopting a decolonial perspective this book argues that knowledge and discourse about climate change has largely disregarded African epistemologies leading to inequalities in knowledge systems Only by considering regionally specific forms of conceptualizing perceiving and responding to climate change can these global problems be tackled First exploring African epistemologies of climate change the book then goes on to the social impacts of climate change matters of climate justice and finally institutional change and adaptation Providing important insights into the social and cultural perception and communication of climate change in Africa this book will be of interest to researchers from across the fields of African studies sociology anthropology philosophy political science climate change and geography

Return to Vietnam Mia Martin Hobbs, 2021-10-14

Since the 1980s thousands of American and Australian veterans have returned to Vietnam. This oral history tells their story.

In Different Times Ian van der Waag, Albert Grundlingh, 2019-11-15. This is the first attempt to bring together diverse scholars using different lenses to study South Africa's Border War. As a book, it is critical in approach, provides deeper reflection, and focuses specifically on the SADF experience of the war. The result is a more complex picture of the war's dynamics and its legacies. Although South Africa is a vastly different country today, the study of the Border War opens a range of questions also relevant to contemporary deployments such as in Lesotho 1998 and the Central African Republic 2013. It includes the debate on participation in foreign conflicts, on the deployment design and preparation of appropriate modern armed forces, and their use as foreign policy instruments in far-off theatres, on military planning, and as the historical controversies regarding the battles at Cuito Cuanavale and Bangui illustrate on the interface between foreign campaigning and domestic politics.
