South African Metro Police Application Forms For 2016

Sanja Kutnjak Ivković, M. R. Haberfeld

South African Metro Police Application Forms For 2016:

Refugee Entrepreneurship Nadeera Ranabahu, Huibert P. de Vries, Robert T. Hamilton, 2024-11-22 This comprehensive volume explores the phenomenon of refugee entrepreneurship and advances the discussions and debates in the domain. The growing number of refugees across the world creates a compelling need to study the social and economic activities of refugees in different contexts and to share experiences and debate how to better support refugee populations. This book covers academic practical and policy issues in refugee entrepreneurship seeking to present the current status of research in this evolving field. The topics include how to identify and differentiate refugee entrepreneurship, refugees business practices, the personal economic and social values and impacts of refugee entrepreneurship and the institutional support and role of ecosystems in facilitating refugee entrepreneurship. Future research directions are also outlined. This book provides scholars with the theoretical foundations and evidence base to advance refugee entrepreneurship research. Support agencies will learn from the experiences of others about the delivery of tailored support and policymakers will recognise the need for empathy and consistency in developing host country strategies for refugees.

Decentralization and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2019-09-10 This collection of essays assesses the efforts of African governments to constitutionalise decentralisation be it in the form of federalism, local government or traditional authorities. Since the end of the Cold War, jurisdictions across Africa have witnessed an ostensible return to multi party democracy within the paradigm of constitutionalism and the rule of law. Linked to the democratisation process, many countries took steps to decentralize power by departing from the heavily centralized systems inherited from colonial regimes. The centralization of power, typically characterized by the personalization and concentration of power in the hands of leaders and privileged elites in capital cities, mostly resulted in repressive regimes and fragile states. As decentralisation is a response to these challenges, this volume analyses the dynamic relationship between the efforts to implement decentralization and presence or absence of constitutionalism. This volume examines a variety of forms and degrees of decentralization found across Africa. It advances a new understanding of trends and patterns and facilitates the exchange of ideas among African governments and scholars about the critical role that decentralisation may play in democratization of and constitutionalism in Africa.

Exploring Police Integrity Sanja Kutnjak Ivković, M. R. Haberfeld, 2019-11-09 This work provides an innovative new look at police ethics including results from an updated version of the classic Police Integrity Questionnaire including new social and technological advances. It aims to push the study of police research further, expanding on and testing police integrity theory and methodology, the relationship between community and integrity and the influence of multiculturalism and globalization on policing and community attitudes. This work brings together experienced scholars who have used the police integrity theory and the accompanying methodology to measure police integrity in eleven countries and provide advance and sophisticated explorations of the topic. Organized into three thematic sections, it explores the testing methodology for international comparisons insights into police community relations and explores police subcultures This innovative book will be of interest to researchers in criminology criminal justice particularly with an interest in policing as well as related fields such as sociology public policy and comparative law Urban Informality in South Africa and Zimbabwe Inocent Moyo, Trynos Gumbo, 2021-01-09 This book adds to the research of urban informality in the Global South with a specific focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe It addresses the agency and the potential transformative capacity of the phenomenon of urban informality in connection with Southern African cities and towns It adopts a political economy approach to analyse the evolution of informality in cities and its implications for urban planning It brings to bear how the South African and Zimbabwean historical and or ideological and contemporary political and economic trajectories have impacted on the ever changing nature of urban informality both spatially and structurally and or compositionally thus resulting in unique urban materialities which are aspects that have scarcely been studied or discussed in the extant literature This book therefore seeks to close the academic gap by dealing with the dearth of literature on spatial re locational discourses of urban informality The work positions urban informality as a resilient force with potency in terms of political mobilisation and re shaping urban spaces Though these are fundamental issues they have received comparatively little attention especially in literature that focuses on the Southern African region Accordingly undergraduate and post graduate students as well as academics in the fields of Urban Geography Political Science Development Studies Sociology Town and Regional Planning among others will find the range of topics and depth of coverage in this book particularly valuable Similarly practitioners and activists on issues of urban informality and urban governance will find the book very useful Police Work and Identity Andrew Faull, 2017-09-07 This is a book about the men and women who police contemporary South Africa Drawing on rich original ethnographical data it considers how officers make sense of their jobs and how they find meaning in their duties It demonstrates that the dynamics that lead to police abuses and scandals in transitional and neo liberalising regimes such as South Africa can be traced to the day to day experiences and ambitions of the average police officer It is about the stories they tell themselves about themselves and their social worlds and how these shape the order they produce through their work By focusing on police officers this book positions the individual in primacy over the organisation asking what policing looks like when motivated by the pursuit of ontological security in precarious contexts It acknowledges but downplays the importance of police culture in determining officers attitudes and behaviour and reminds readers that most officers lives are entangled in and shaped by a range of social political and cultural forces It suggests that a job in the South African Police Service SAPS is primarily just that a job Most officers join the organisation after other dreams have slipped beyond reach their presence in the Service being almost accidental But once employed they re write their self narratives and enact carefully choreographed performances to ease managerial and public pressure and to rationalize their coercive practices In an era where evidence and what works reigns supreme and where cop culture is often deemed a primary socializing force

this book emphasises how officers personal histories ambitions and vulnerabilities remain central to how policing unfolds on the street

Exploring the Conditions that Impact Local Administration Responsiveness work to Migrants in selected Metropolitan Municipalities of South Africa Kibreab Habtemichael Gebereselassie, 2022-01-03 Research on local administration responsiveness towards migrants and non citizens revealed that demographic characteristics in local municipalities have often caused challenges for local administrations to be responsive to the diverse needs of their communities Lucio et al 2013 Lucio 2016 The objective of this study was to explore the conditions that impact on the local administration s responsiveness work to migrants in Durban Cape Town Johannesburg metropolitan municipalities of South Africa The study s goal is met by identifying five major conditions that impact the local administration s responsiveness work to migrants in the study areas Conducted in two rounds field research the study used qualitative research design methods Semistructured interviews group discussions field memos and observations were used to collect data Thematic analysis method was implemented to investigate and analyze the collected raw data This dissertation also used relevant theory as framework and guide to uncover elements of local administrative responsiveness which are associated with migrants The study identified and demonstrated that five major conditions impact the local administration s responsiveness work to migrants in the study areas Local administration work environment administration organizational structure and professionalism external control from elected officials and local politics migrant s community association and economic contribution of migrants are the main conditions that impact on the responsiveness work of the local administration The findings also showed that anchored in the above five conditions administrative responsiveness also varies across the selected study areas This study also contributed by adding new insights about the mechanisms on how the local administration can address the issues of migrants who do not have a direct representation in the local government structure Accordingly for a better responsiveness work to migrants and to support the inclusion of migrants who do not have a direct political representation the study proposes recommendation for policy practice and research that targets on local administration responsiveness work to migrants

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents' race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

Form and Substance in the Law of Obligations Andrew Robertson, James Goudkamp, 2019-11-28 This volume explores the relationship between form and substance in the law of obligations It builds on the rich tradition of legal thought that deploys the concepts of form and substance to inform our understanding of the common law The essays in this collection offer multiple conceptions of form and substance and cover an array of private law subjects scholarly approaches and jurisdictions The collection makes it clear that the interplay between form and substance is a key element of the dynamism that characterises this area of the law

The Handbook of Displacement Peter Adey, Janet C. Bowstead, Katherine Brickell, Vandana Desai, Mike Dolton, Alasdair Pinkerton, Ayesha Siddiqi, 2020-12-11 This Handbook provides the knowledge and tools needed to understand how displacement is lived governed and mediated as an unfolding and grounded process bound up in spatial inequities of power and injustice The handbook ensures first that internal displacements and their everyday re-occurrences are not overlooked second it questions who counts by including displaced people who are less obviously identifiable and a clearly circumscribed or categorised group third it stresses that while displacement suggests mobility there are also periods and spaces of enforced stillness that are not adequately reflected in the displacement literature and fourth it re evokes and explores the place in displacement by critically interrogating peoples right to place and the significance of placemaking unmaking and remaking in the contemporary world The 50 plus chapters are organised across seven themes designed to further develop interdisciplinary study of the technologies journeys traces governance more than human representation and resisting of displacement Each of these thematic sections begin with an intervention which spotlights actions to creatively and strategically intervene in displacement The interventions explore myriad meanings and manifestations of displacement and its contestation from the perspective of displaced people artists writers activists scholar activists and scholars involved in practice oriented research The Handbook will be an essential companion for academics students and practitioners committed to forging solidarity care and home in an era of displacement The Sale Catalogues of British Government Publications, 1836-1921 Great Britain. Quest for Constitutionalism Hugh Corder, Veronica Federico, 2016-02-24 This volume provides a timely assessment on the progress made towards the achievement of a constitutional democracy in South Africa The chapters collectively present an in depth analysis of the development of the legal system and of the implications of the Constitution for the social configuration of power To what extent has the vision of constitutionalism contained in the Constitution been realised Primarily concerned with the impact of laws and the salience of their existence and enforcement for South Africans the work highlights the importance of placing the constitutional regime in its historical cultural social economic and political context The book further recognises the importance of the South African constitutional provisions for transnational or globalised constitutionalism more broadly It contains contributions from South African scholars as well as European authors bringing in new analytical angles and adding a specific comparative dimension Through the prism of South Africa the authors discuss the innovative character of constitutional and legal provisions in terms of both constitution making and law making processes and their contents This book provides analysis that will be relevant to scholars students and practitioners specifically those interested in International Relations Law Sociology of Law and African Studies as well as socio political comparative studies

Sherlock Holmes And The Autumn Of Terror Randy Williams, 2016-10-31 Would Sherlock Holmes be able to catch Jack the Ripper Everyone knows the name of Sherlock Holmes the fictional detective created by Arthur Conan Doyle with his superhuman powers of observation and unbeatable methodology for solving crimes But could his 1800 s philosophy really work in the modern world to solve genuine crimes That s the very question that a real life US based private detective asked himself before embarking on the adventure of a lifetime by stepping into Holmes shoes and using his mindset to solve real crimes So effective was this method that he decided to turn his attention to the greatest set of crimes known in history the brutal murders perpetrated by the criminal who came to be known as Jack the Ripper The author along with a team of three of the world s top forensic scientists and criminologists Dr Michael M Baden Dr Cyril H Wecht and Dr Henry C Lee have convincingly solved the infamous Jack the Ripper murders of 1888 London arguably the world s most talked about unsolved murder mystery But their true life resolution of the case is presented here in the form of a Sherlock Holmes novel painstakingly penned faithfully in the style of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle In it the author who actually used Holmes methods to uncover the killers identity explains exactly how the crimes were committed and by whom all in the form of a fast paced thriller featuring the world s most beloved detective along with Dr Watson from whose point of view most of the tale is told Once the reader has finally been clued in on the final solution the murders are then revisited from the killers perspective The story opens in the year 2017 with the sealed box of Holmes most controversial cases being opened by Watson s great grandson Jacob and among those cases is that of London s Ripper murders that took place in what was then and has forever after been known as the Autumn of Terror Jacob is shocked to learn the true story as well as the reasons Holmes deemed the case s explosive resolution too shocking and incendiary to have been revealed to the public in Victorian England and so to be sealed entombed in a tin box for 125 years as were a number of other cases that are mentioned in some of Doyle s Holmes stories Along the way the actual facts of the case and the evidence that led Randy and his team to the real killer will be revealed to the reader through Holmes investigative methods Reaction and Renewal in South Africa Paul B.

Rich,2016-07-27 This volume is a timely survey of the changes that have been occurring in South African politics and society since the unbanning of the exile liberation movements in 1990 It brings together a collection of seasoned scholars who examine the debates over changes in such areas as the economy the state the legal system the position of women and foreign relations The volume explores the forces pushing for radical change in South African society as well as those resisting it and is particularly notable for bringing a political science perspective to bear on such issues as the restructuring of government and the constitution Beyond the Mountain B Camminga,zethu Matebeni,2023-02-10 Beyond The Mountain Queer Life in
