

COMMUNIQUE

INSTITUTIONAL STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL

Food Allowances

For Immediate Release

From: The 2023/24 TUT Student Representative Council

TO: The Student Body

Re: Food Allowances

Friday, April 12, 2024

Revolutionary Greetings to the student populace of Africa's largest contact university, led by the innovative ISRC, which acts when students are starving. We hope this communication finds you in high spirits as we provide a progressive report to our student populace.

In response to the memorandum that we delivered to Minister Blade Ndimande on Tuesday, April 9, 2024, Professor Blade Ndimande, the Minister of Higher Education, Science, and Innovation, has taken immediate action by dissolving the NSFAS Board and placing the institution under administration. This is a significant step towards removing all the corrupt officials employed by this institution. The Institutional Student Representative Council aims to combat corruption within NSFAS and ensure students receive proper financial help.

Students who have not yet received their food allowances will receive them through Fundi. We recognise how important these allowances are to our students, and we will continue to campaign for your rights to receive them as soon as possible. As your student representatives, we are determined to fight for you until corrupt officials like Esaga are removed from office. We are devoted to ensuring that nothing disrupts your studies and that you have the resources you need to succeed.

Students will begin receiving money tomorrow, while others will receive it on Monday. Please be aware that students who have already received payments from Esaga will not be paid again, as these are April allowances. The university is still awaiting NSFAS approval to pay the 1,000 students who were on-boarded by Esaga but never got their money. This issue is being rapidly handled, and updates on this set of students will be shared next week.

The ISRC will continue to push for the students at the people's university until they receive what is properly theirs. We would like to assure that no student will perish from hunger or a lack of accommodation. The 2023/2024 ISRC is at the forefront, leading the fight against hunger. We will always prioritise your well-being and academic objectives.

We like to appreciate the students who came out to the streets to defend their human rights against corruption and negligence created by the appointment of the four service providers.
