spices used by medieval apothecaries By association the confectioner's art was at first medical in nature and many sweets such as aniseed balls which were a medieval cure for indigestion were originally consumed for reasons of health Other sweets came in to being in the worlds of ritual and magic Chocolate for example was mixed with chilli and used as a libation by the Aztecs It subsequently appeared in other rather more palatable drinks around the world but not in the solid form we now recognize until about 150 years ago But the special significance of a gift of chocolate remains Whatever their manifold origins sweets are still a feature of every human society around the world Tim Richardson's book tells the extraordinary story of comfits and drag es lozenges and pastilles sherbets and subtleties Like a box of chocolates it's something you can just dip into or scoff all at once
