All About Penguins

Penguins are very interesting birds. They are the only birds that can't fly. Penguins use their flippers to swim. People think that penguins live in the North Pole, but they do not! They live in the southern part of the world. Penguins eat fish and other sea creatures they catch in the water. They spend half of their time in the water. There are many kinds of penguins. The biggest penguin is the Emperor Penguin. It can be over three feet tall. Penguins are cool!

Reading Day

Every year at my school, we have a special reading day. We spend the whole day reading and it is one of the best days of the year. We can bring in books from home, or read books in our classroom. We get to find cozy spots in the room to read our books. My teacher lets us bring in pillows and blankets so we can lay on the floor. We can bring in a stuffed animal to read to! This year my teacher said that we can wear pajamas and slippers to Reading Day. I cannot wait!

All About Summer

There are four seasons in every year: spring, summer, winter and fall. Summer is the season that is the warmest. It also has the longest days of any season. It starts on June 21 and ends on September 23. In the summer, the earth is tilted towards the sun. Then we have summer, the other half of the year. The world is having winter! Many people enjoy outdoor activities in the summer because of the warm weather. Most plants grow best during the summer months because of the amount of sunlight they receive.

Spanish 1st Grade Fluency Passage Printables:

Handbook of Early Literacy Research David K. Dickinson, Susan B. Neuman, 2007-05-02 Current research increasingly highlights the role of early literacy in young children's development and informs practices and policies that promote success among diverse learners. The Handbook of Early Literacy Research presents cutting edge knowledge on all aspects of literacy learning in the early years. Volume 2 provides additional perspectives on important topics covered in Volume 1 and addresses critical new topics: the transition to school, the teacher-child relationship, sociodramatic play, vocabulary development, neuroimaging work, Vygotskian theory, findings from international studies, and more. Language and Literacy Development in Bilingual Settings Aydin Yücesan Durgunoglu, Claude Goldenberg, 2011-03-14 Grounded in state-of-the-art research, this book explores how English language learners develop both the oral language and literacy skills necessary for school success. Chapters examine the cognitive bases of English acquisition and how the process is different for children from alphabetic such as Spanish and nonalphabetic such as Chinese language backgrounds. The book addresses a key challenge facing educators and clinicians: identifying students whose poor English skills may indicate an underlying impairment as opposed to still developing language proficiency. Implications for diagnosis, intervention, and instruction are highlighted throughout.

Handbook of Multicultural School Psychology Emilia C. Lopez, Sara G. Nahari, Sherrie Proctor, 2017-03-16 The second edition of the Handbook of Multicultural School Psychology continues the mission of its predecessor, offering a comprehensive interdisciplinary view of the field of multicultural school psychology and addressing the needs of children and families from diverse cultural backgrounds. The revised organizational structure includes the following: History and Professional Issues; Consultation and Collaboration; Interventions Focused on Academic and Mental Health Issues; Data-based Decision Making; Systems-based Issues; Training and Research; and Future Perspectives. Nineteen of the volume's twenty-three chapters are completely new to this edition, while the rest have been effectively revised and updated. Comprehensive In seven sections, this book covers theoretical research and practical concerns in a wide range of areas that include multicultural and bilingual issues, second language acquisition, acculturation, parent collaboration, research, and systemic issues. Chapter Structure: Chapter authors follow a uniform structure that includes theoretical and research issues and implications for practice. Recent practice and training guidelines including Blueprint for Training and Practice III (2006), NASP Model for Comprehensive and Integrated School Psychological Services (2010), and APA Multicultural Guidelines (2003) are covered. Interdisciplinary Perspective: Contributing authors are from a wide range of related fields that include school psychology, special education, general education, early childhood education, educational psychology, clinical psychology, counseling, and mental health, thus exposing readers to theory and research from various approaches. Changes New to this edition: A section focusing on systemic issues such as overrepresentation of culturally and linguistically diverse CLD students in special education, prejudice, response to intervention (RTI) for CLD students, and English Language Learners (ELL).
