How to Write a Winning College Application Essay Michael James Mason, 1991 Seniors in high school start feeling stressed at the mere thought of writing the college application essay They well know the role this crucial document plays in getting into their university of choice What they may not know is that there is a right way and a wrong way to writing the essay I ve noticed some recurrent bad habits that have hurt otherwise good essays and I have added mention of them throughout the book says Michael James Mason author of How to Write a Winning College

Application Essay A student doesn't have to be a star scholar or a superhero to write a great application essay. They just have to show on paper that they know some things about themselves and that life has meaning and perspective. In How to Write a Winning College Application Essay, Mason teaches students how to put their best image on paper while letting the essay speak from their heart about what life means to them. Since the publication of the first two editions of his practical manual, thousands of students across the nation have used his techniques in the process of writing their personal statements for college and graduate school. Thousands of good students have been accepted into colleges of their choice because their essays were honest, moving, and sensitive. Their essays revealed their values, insights, and spirit, says Mason. About the Author: Michael James Mason has helped thousands of students at his College Essay Workshops and in previous editions of this book. In writing the third edition to this popular book, he looked to the experiences of real students and admissions officials, the people who write and read the essays in college applications. He lives in Marina Del Rey, California.

Write Out Loud: Use the Story To College Method, Write Great Application Essays, and Get into Your Top Choice College Carol Barash, 2013-09-06

Tell your story and connect with the college of your dreams for admission and financial aid. If everyone wrote essays like this, admissions officers would have to take every student's essay seriously. Steve LeMenager, founder of Edvise Princeton and former director of admission at Princeton University. With patience, contagious confidence, and plenty of real-life examples, Carol illuminates a process that can help anyone discover and articulate those stories that will help them stand out in their own way and in their own words. Shelley Krause, college counselor, Rutgers Preparatory School, and curator of the College Lists Wiki. Because the college essay offers applicants their lone opportunity to demonstrate what truly matters to them and to share the qualities that make them unique, the stakes could not be any higher. With meticulous detail, Barash delivers a foolproof plan for helping college applicants strike essay gold. Chad Troutwine, cofounder and CEO of Veritas Prep. To write out loud is to write and speak in a way that makes people pay attention. Write Out Loud teaches the Story To College program with its proven storytelling-based approach, the Moments Method. This program has helped more than 8,000 students from high schools in the United States and around the world create effective, authentic application essays to win admission and financial aid at their top college choices. Write Out Loud enables anyone to masterfully integrate past experiences and future ambitions into successful application essays and interviews. The guided exercises help college essay writers get past the stress and confusion of writing about themselves. Write Out Loud reveals how to find unique topics for compelling essays, shows how to make the transition from a spoken story to a written essay, and provides examples of successful essays. The book also walks students through the Common Application, the online college application form used by more than 500 colleges and universities in the US and abroad. Inside, students will find The 12 Tools of the Moments Method, specific guidance for completing the Common Application, charts and checklists to organize essays and supplements, insight from admissions officers on what characterizes a successful college application essay. With Write Out Loud, students build pick by the New York Times bestselling author of Must Love Dogs. Her quirky voice and sense of humor are as strong as ever. The Orlando Sentinel March Monroe and her daughter Olivia are going to college. March knows that Olivia is going naturally since she and her husband have just made their first exorbitant tuition payment. But Olivia doesn't exactly know the arrangement yet. Imagine Olivia's surprise when one day she shows up for training at a local radio station and finds out that one of the other interns is her mother. Very funny with plenty of giggles. The Hartford Courant Cook has a gift for telling an entertaining and funny story that is light enough for a beach read yet weighty enough to get under your skin and into your heart. Her characters are quirky and inconsistent good-hearted folks who make mistakes and have regrets but none of the damage is lasting. Love and forgiveness beat out hate and revenge. Patriot Ledger Cook's ability to make families' foibles ring true and funny ensures a delightful read. Library Journal Claire Cook infuses her novels with that sassy kind of off-beat humor that makes you giggle, shake your head, and then keep reading. And isn't that what you want a beach book to do? Florida Today Cook's characters are delightful and quirky, and the storyline is fast-paced and lively with just the right touch of humor and romance. Fresh Fiction Nobody does the easy breezy beach read with a lighter hand than Claire Cook. Hartford Courant
