

Comparative Analysis Essay Outline

Complete the outline below. No need for complete sentences (save for the thesis), it's here to help structure your argument. Be sure you're following the ICE-TEA method.

Introduction Paragraph

Hook (Relevant to the topic/prompt)

"The Veldt" and "A Sound of Thunder" written by Ray Bradbury, both combine many different literary elements, but the one that stands out the most is social commentary. Social Commentary is used throughout Bradbury's various novels and stories to help the reader connect and relate to what they see in the real world. In both "The Veldt" and "A Sound of Thunder", Bradbury uses literary elements to relate and show forms of social commentary.

Background/Context (Bridges hook to Thesis)

Author: Ray Bradbury

Brief bio or significance of author:

Ray Bradbury was an American author and screenwriter. Bradbury was one of the most celebrated 20th-century American writers, he worked in a variety of modes, including fantasy, science fiction, horror, mystery, and realistic fiction.

Context of Prompt (bring the reader up-to-speed on the topic of the essay):

Select three literary devices within an area to guide your analysis of two Ray Bradbury works. Your goal is to argue which text is more effective at demonstrating area by comparing and contrasting two texts through specific evidence.

Thesis (Be clear and specific, keep it one sentence)

Re-write: Text "A" is more effective at (AREA BEING COMPARED) than text "B" through it's use of...

Element 1- "The Veldt" is more effective at sharing social commentary than "A Sound of Thunder" through its use of social issues.

Element 2-"The Veldt" is more effective at sharing social commentary than "A Sound of Thunder" through its use of themes.

Element 3-"The Veldt" is more effective at sharing social commentary than "A Sound of Thunder" through its use of conflict.

Complete Thesis Statement: Ray Bradbury establishes stronger social commentary in his

How to Write a Research Paper: A Guide Book for Neophyte Students Dr. Rashmee Yadav, 2023-02-14 ABOUT THE BOOK The book How to write a Research Paper Guide book for neophyte students composed by three youngsters Dr Rashmee Yadav Dr Brij Vikash Singh and Dr Mithesh Verma is a fantastic effort in this direction They have covered almost all the areas of research paper writing process and how to write a research paper etc The book is based on the research paper writing process The author s main focused on this book How to write a Research Paper Guide Book for the neophyte students This book is helpful to students writing research paper in proper way because plenty of research papers are written every year But in many of them research methodology aspect is not given a considerable attention and because of which the research papers end up in just being endless words containing stories leading to less or no sense It should be noted that the quality in research articles comes from the extensive planning and in depth research before starting writing them actually This is true even for management research papers writing A research paper analyzes a perspective or argues a point Regardless of the type of research paper the researcher is writing the researcher should present his own thinking backed up by others ideas and information Research paper as a result of the research in the teaching of writing discussions with colleagues and own experiences we have developed a detailed approach to writing research papers and the approach is presented here Instead of focusing on one research paper we have focused on the process of research writing through a series of shorter writing exercises Students begin by having to carefully think about a topic of research and by developing a working idea They then write a series of shorter essays that explore that topic All along the way students are continuing to research and revise their working proposal so that by the end of the term their thinking about their original topic of research has evolved This b

A Comparative Study of Writing Abilities in Two Modes at the Grade 5, 8, and 12 Levels Ian Pringle, Aviva Freedman, Ontario. Ministry of Education, Ontario. Ministry of Colleges and Universities, 1985 The third of three studies involving a comparative analysis of transactional and narrative writing of selected samples of students in two Ontario districts this study addressed questions arising from the earlier studies and examined the writing skills of students in grades 5 8 and 12 Writing samples were examined for conformity to the norms of story structure and argumentation and the subject matter of the transactional writing was analyzed The level of affective development manifested in subsamples of both the stories and the arguments was rated All the papers in the sample were analyzed for syntactic complexity scores and for mechanical and conventional errors Comparisons of the first and second versions of the papers were made to assess skills in revising and editing Findings indicated the need of students to learn how to write an argument and to revise a paper Other implications were 1 that since the level of difficulty of one aspect of a writing task may decrease the lack of control in another teachers must take into account the nature of difficulties in the tasks they set students and make their assessments accordingly 2 that students at all levels should be given occasions to write narratives 3 that the model of persuasive discourse should be countered and 4 that writing strategies recommended by authorities need to be implemented EL Teaching World History: A Resource Book Heidi Roupp, 2015-03-04 A resource book for teachers of world history at all levels The text contains individual sections on art gender religion philosophy literature trade and technology Lesson plans reading and multi media recommendations and suggestions for classroom activities are also provided Report Writing John Ball, Cecil Brown Williams, 1955 Public Schools of Bay City ... Bay City (Mich.). Board of education, 1890 How Students Write: A Linguistic Analysis Laura Louise Aull, 2020-04-01 Broad generalizations about people today are a familiar feature of first year student writing How Students Write brings a fresh perspective to this perennial observation using corpus linguistics techniques This study analyzes sentence level patterns in student writing to develop an understanding of how students present evidence draw connections between ideas relate to their readers and ultimately learn to construct knowledge in their writing Drawing on both first year and upper level student writing the book examines the discourse of students at different points in their education It also distinguishes between argumentative and analytic essays to explore the way school genres and assignments shape students choices In focusing on sentence level features such as hedges perhaps and boosters definitely this study shows how such rhetorical choices work together to open or close opportunities for thoughtful exchanges of ideas Attention to these features can help instructors foster civil discourse design effective assignments and expose and question norms of higher education
