Writing Brave and Free Ted Kooser,Steve Cox,2006-01-01 Sometimes setting pen to paper requires bravery and writing well means breaking free of the rules learned in school Liberating and emboldening the beginning writer are the goals of Ted Kooser and Steve Cox in this spirited book of practical wisdom that brings to bear decades of invaluable experience in writing teaching editing and publishing Unlike how to write books that dwell on the angst and the agony of the trade Writing Brave and Free is upbeat and accessible The focus here is the work itself how to get started and how to keep going and never is heard a discouraging word such as no not or never Because of the wealth of their experience the authors can offer the sort of practical publishing advice that novices need and yet rarely find Organized in brief user friendly chapters on everything from sensory details to a work environment from creating suspense to revising and taking criticism the book allows aspiring and practicing writers to dip in anywhere and find something of value      A Woman's Place Shirley Morahan,1981-06-30 A truly liberated rhetoric and reader has at last become available to courses in composition with the publication of A Woman's Place. This unique textbook explores the notion of writing as self definition and as a consequence the relationship between gender and writing. Convinced that writing is a meaningful process performed with commitment, Dr. Morahan has created a course that simultaneously sharpens writing and thinking skills and contributes to the consciousness raising of women and men in today's world. Her pedagogy for liberation creates a student centered classroom in which a spirit of collaboration replaces one of competition by means of peer editing, tutorial approaches and small group activities. The literary passages of A Woman's Place are both stylistically and thematically tied in with the lessons directly. At the same time they function as a compact women's studies course. Research and writing are organized around a cluster of shared themes: problems that all students are addressing in their lives; power vs. powerlessness; passivity vs. action; identity; oppression vs. freedom; and the nurturance of creativity. Taken from the works of professional writers including such well known individuals as Adrienne Rich, Tillie Olsen, Joan Didion, Virginia Woolf, Margaret Mead, Mary Wollstonecraft, Jonathan Swift and Sylvia Plath, they are often accompanied by short excerpts from student essays. Useful bibliographical notes suggest further readings.
