Towards Good Order at Sea Thomas Mandrup, Francois Vre~, 2015-03-01 The problems originating from the resultant bad order at sea can be directly felt on land when smuggling terrorism and related criminal activities operate more or less unhindered The book provides an important mapping of the challenges preventing good order at sea off the African coast and East Africa in particular Rear Admiral N Wang Commandant Royal Danish Defence College African Navies Timothy Stapleton, 2022-11-11 This edited volume focuses on aspects of the understudied theme of African sea power including African navies and the engagement of non African navies with the continent Africa possesses 48 000 kilometers of coastline comprising 38 out of 54 of the continent s states and several strategic choke points for international shipping such as the Suez Canal the Gulf of Aden and the Cape of Good Hope Nevertheless post colonial Africa s small navies and their relations with the navies of external powers have not received much scholarly attention Focusing on Sub Saharan Africa this collection attempts to address this neglect and stimulate further research by offering original chapters related to historical and contemporary themes around Africa s navies The historical chapters cover the origin of the Tanzanian Ethiopian Nigerian and Ghana navies during the era of decolonization and the Cold War the asymmetrical naval campaign fought during the Nigerian Civil War 1967 70 and the activities of the Soviet Navy in supporting African states and movements fighting lingering colonialism and white supremacy during the 1970s and 1980s Focusing on the contemporary situation other chapters discuss the engagement of the Indian Navy with Africa the potential role of the Angolan and Mozambican navies in the Southern African Development Community SADC the transformation and development of the post apartheid South African Navy and the challenges and capabilities of African navies in the early twenty first century The book concludes by discussing the question of whether African coastal countries need navies This book will be of much interest to students of naval power strategic studies African politics and International Relations Chapters 1 2 6 and 8 of this book are available for free in Open Access at www.taylorfrancis.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country s new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa s changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world

Owen Parker: Rhino Connection Chris Bellenot, Arthur Pendragon, 2013-11-26 A percentage of the proceeds from the sales of this book will be donated to wildlife conservation dedicated to save the rhinos On a warm African night an adult rhino collapses in the grass and breathes its last Minutes earlier poachers had brutally hacked off its horn and fled with their treasure It is a fact that myths greed and corruption are behind the illegal trade of rhino horns Owen Parker a young conservationist is sucked into a death threatening journey crossing the path of this trafficking reckless organization which is ready to break all the rules to reach their precious prize Owen possesses instinctive survival skills Will it be sufficient to stay alive in this maze full of violence dishonesty and appetite for more money This sequel describing the adventures of Owen Parker has two main purposes The obvious aim is to entertain readers with action driven books of fiction based on facts Beyond this lies a deeper intention The beauty and majesty of wildlife and nature are under threat from external pressure from a variety of sources We strongly believe that each individual can make a difference by acting to reduce this threat and thereby contribute to the preservation of our fragile environment Through the character of Owen Parker we aim to promote the conservation of wildlife

Reforming Civil-Military Relations in New Democracies Aurel Croissant, David Kuehn, 2017-03-20 This book addresses the challenge of reforming defense and military policy making in newly democratized nations By tracing the development of civil military relations in various new democracies from a comparative perspective it links two bodies of scholarship that thus far have remained largely separate the study of emerging or failed civilian control over armed forces on the one hand and work on the roots and causes of military effectiveness to guarantee the protection and security of citizens on the other The empirical and theoretical findings presented here will appeal to scholars of civil military relations democratization and security issues as well as to defense policy makers

Seaforth World Naval Review 2013 Conrad Waters, 2015-10-31 Seaforth World Naval Review 2013 Launched in 2009 this annual has rapidly established a reputation as an authoritative but affordable summary of all that has happened in the naval world in the previous twelve months It combines the standing features of regional surveys with one off major articles on noteworthy new ships and other important developments Besides the latest warship projects it also looks at wider issues of importance to navies such as aviation and electronics and calls on expertise from around the globe to give a balanced picture of what is going on and to interpret its significance Planned special features for this year include in depth studies of the navies of Italy and Ireland plus analyses of significant new warship classes the French Aquitaine class frigates Indian Shivalik class Project 17 frigates and US Bertholf class national security cutters Intended to make interesting reading as well as providing authoritative reference there is a strong visual emphasis including
