Pedagogies for Equitable Access Lourdes Cardozo-Gaibisso,Ruth Harman,Max Vazquez Dominguez,Cory Buxton,2024-07-01 During the COVID 19 pandemic public health recommendations for physical distancing created an urgent need for new and remixed online and distance ways of preparing teaching and assessing learning practices This new context forced teacher educators administrators and public policymakers around the globe to rethink reshape and redesign curriculum instruction and assessment practices and modalities While online education has been an option available to many for decades no other moment in recent history has demanded such a rapid shift in educational practices impacting tens of millions of teachers and hundreds of millions of students worldwide Fortunately in some cases highly innovative advances in technological resources have supported educators in designing and implementing transformative approaches In the field of language education educators have had to reconceptualize online instruction so that digital and other multimodal resources are designed to fully engage multilingual students in optimal and equitable learning contexts This edited book serves the purpose of focusing the research agendas of K 12 educators teacher educators and policymakers on the lessons and insights the field can gain from this crisis as we adapt to the post pandemic future of language education As argued over the past three years the pandemic has exposed multiple structural issues related to accessibility inequity and poverty ubiquitous issues that have existed in our societies for decades It has also drawn attention to the notion of competing priorities challenging our ability to determine what can and cannot be done in terms of human financial and logistical capacity around the globe With this focus in mind the aim of this edited book is to provide readers with robust and systematic thinking about the multifaceted strengths and challenges that have emerged during and after the COVID 19 pandemic Specifically informed by a critical perspective on societal power dynamics and equity this edited book explores the following interconnected topics in multilingual multicultural settings i instructional strategies and curriculum adaptations ii in service and pre service teacher education practices iii classroom based pedagogical innovations and assessment

High School Memoirs: a Journey in Surrealism Sean C. Cusack, 2007-11-14 Synopsis High School Memoirs A Journey in Surrealism is a tear jerking hilarious ride for a less than ordinary High School student who battles bullies and librarians to become King of the Classroom Set in a small Catholic High School on the north side of Chicago author Sean Cusack takes us on a surrealistic journey through four fun filled years of triumph and tragedy in this unique epic The journey begins with Sean Cusack entering St Bernadin High School in August of 1995 as a very young and innocent Freshman student He focuses on several life changing experiences in his infant days of High School that change him forever Innocence Lost traces the steps Sean Cusack took that ultimately lead him on a path toward frequent battles with students and the school faculty and Administration As a Sophomore The Ride most certainly takes us on a ride through fights vandalism and verbal debacles that continued to steer the vengeful ship that Sean Cusack had been building since a Freshman He now had become the ships Captain as it set sail The Ride takes us through many strange and mysterious encounters that add more of a surrealist element to this budding melodrama and comedic satire Sean Cusacks roses bud Junior Year in Forever Remembered when he becomes a charismatic hero and leader of a rebellious group of students that pillage and plunder the school and faculty in wild and zany antics Forever Remembered embodies the humorous and more imaginative side of Sean Cusack as the journey through High School becomes more surreal Senior Year wraps up the trials and tribulations that Sean Cusack had endured thus far in his High School experience culminating into one person after years of battling the Defunct Administration He is molded by evil as the rebellious youth becomes totally hellbent on crippling the school In the end he loses friends respect from teachers but most of all he loses faith in his cause yet ends his High School experience with a fantastical and triumphant bow Sean Cusack proves that not all High School stories are the same in this turbulent and chaotic autobiography High School Memoirs A Journey in Surrealism chronicles a strange and unique history that is truly a step above the rest
