Saul Torres

③ The Civil War was a war between the states within the United States. The states were split, North and South. The South was called the Confederate, with Jefferson Davis being the leader, while the North was called the Union and Abraham Lincoln was the leader. The war began because the South had slaves, and many northern people were against slavery. The two parts of the Country could not agree.

The war took 4 years to end. But there were many battles that were fought throughout the war.

A lot of the battles of the Civil War were fought in the South. Many people think that would give the South a benefit, but it didn't. The North had a lot more money so the soldiers were better prepared for the fights. The Union soldiers had better training to fight too. The soldiers all had muskets; those were the guns back then. Muskets were used because they didn't have the guns we have today. The soldiers -
