

AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL ESSAY

In this autobiography, I will talk about my life until this point in time. I am John Smith. I was born on February 8th, 1997, in the state of Miami. Being half German, my mother is from Germany, as my father is an American. In my childhood, I experienced both ways of life. I lived in Germany for a couple of years during my childhood. As my parents got job offers in Germany. Though, I spent most of my life in the US. And now, I am studying Literature at EssayPro university. Growing up, mostly in Miami, I lived in a typical house — in a middle-class family. My father works as a psychologist in a mental health institution as my mother works for a large high school as a mathematics teacher. I grew up with two other children — both a brother and a sister. Despite the age difference, my brother is older, and my sister is younger despite. We all got on very well while growing up.

I am now 22 years old. I have always enjoyed education, ever since being a young child. During my high school years, I was never a popular child. I used to spend most of my days in the school library. In which the school librarian allowed me to take as many books as I wanted. She was a cool librarian. Though, she only twisted the school's regulations for me. As she knew I love reading.

I was academically strong throughout my years in secondary education. I have never held back a grade, in which many of my classmates were. I have been studying hard from the age of 12 to this day. My specialty is English literature. I can also speak and read German fluently. Thus, I also enjoy some German writing. I don't study German literature. Reimbursing myself in German literature is merely my way of escaping the nature of reality for a short while. It's my way of relaxing - as other people enjoy watching X Factor and Netflix programs.

Nowadays, I am working my part-time job as a waiter in Thank God it's Fridays. I don't enjoy this job. Though, it enables me to get through my university studies more efficiently. My day usually consists of 3 hours serving at TGI Fridays, then 5 hours of lectures scattered throughout the afternoon. I enjoy learning something new every day.

My aim in the future to become an English literature teacher. My mother, being the primary influence for me becoming a teacher. I did consider becoming a mental health psychologist. Though, many stories put me off that idea.

In my experience, I have taught some elementary classes. The first took place in Miami Elementary School. It was class 4B, and they were eager to learn their required learning material. The behavior was wonderful.

The first thing I taught them was their times-tables. What I did was create a song for them — as I brought my guitar into my first day. I played the times-tables song on my guitar and sang it to them. After, I gave them a little quiz on their times- tables. In which many of them got around 50% scores.

second thing was peer work. I got them to work together in twos or threes. In which, their task was to come up with as many times table sums as possible. It didn't matter how complex or simple they were. I then asked them to swap their papers with their peer groups. They were then required to provide answers to these sums with explanations.

Most of them got their equations incorrect. So I taught them the natural way of answering any times-table sum. I explained to them that the way to do that is by taking away the second digit.

Writing = Learning Brenton Doecke, Graham Parr, 2005 Affirming the professional knowledge practice and engagement of teachers in the face of recurring media attacks on their profession this examination of the role of writing in various teaching and learning contexts by English teachers provides richly reflective perspectives on the relationship between the writing and learning of both students and professionals

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Buddhism in the Modern World Steven Heine, Charles S. Prebish, 2003-09-11 The history of Buddhism has been characterized by an ongoing tension between attempts to preserve traditional ideals and modes of practice and the need to adapt to changing cultural conditions Many developments in Buddhist history such as the infusion of esoteric rituals the rise of devotionism and lay movements and the assimilation of warrior practices reflect the impact of widespread social changes on traditional religious structures At the same time Buddhism has been able to maintain its doctrinal purity to a remarkable degree This volume explores how traditional Buddhist communities have responded to the challenges of modernity such as science and technology colonialism and globalization Editors Steven Heine and Charles S Prebish have commissioned ten essays by leading scholars each examining a particular traditional Buddhist school in its cultural context The essays consider how the encounter with modernity has impacted the disciplinary textual ritual devotional practical and socio political traditions of Buddhist thought throughout Asia Taken together these essays reveal the diversity and vitality of contemporary Buddhism and offer a wide ranging look at the way Buddhism interacts with the modern world

Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character's story Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of auto biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link.springer.com

Motivation Science Mimi Bong, Johnmarshall Reeve, Sung-il Kim, 2023 Motivational science has advanced tremendously in the last decade However it is now clear that future progress is going to be stalled by the extent of disagreement among motivation scientists to some basic yet controversial questions To help move motivation science toward greater coherence we decided to recruit prominent scholars to voice their contrasting perspectives Such debate is not only interesting but it also makes future research discoveries collaborations and applications more fruitful It is in this spirit that we put together a volume to addresses those controversies that are most likely to provide insight
