Partial Defences to Murder Great Britain. Law Commission,2004 Following on from an earlier consultation paper by the Law Commission Consultation paper 173 ISBN 0117302597 published in October 2003 this report makes recommendations on the law and practice of the partial defences to murder of diminished responsibility and provocation as covered by the Homicide Act 1957 with particular regard to domestic violence situations It also considers whether there should be a partial defence to murder in cases involving the use of excessive force in self defence Appendices include sections detailing research into the ways in which the law of provocation and diminished responsibility are working a brief empirical survey of public opinion relating to partial defences to murder a synopsis of sample cases of female defendants convicted of murder and a sociological history of provocation and diminished responsibility

How Dehumanization Leads to Murder and Genocide

Stewart Gabel,2023-11-14 This book discusses psychological aspects of dehumanization and of the human tendency to dominate control and potentially murder those considered less than or other by the dominant group It explores how increasingly severe dehumanization resulted in the genocide of six million Jews in the second World War Psychological and behavioral strategies Nazi aggressors and ordinary citizens used to mislead themselves during this process are described Understanding the sequence of events from dehumanization to murder has implications for the apparent tendency of human beings to harm and potentially kill those who appear different or who are made into the other Efforts to prevent genocide should actively challenge dehumanization of weaker populations whenever possible even when dehumanization appears mild insignificant or innocuous

Sexual Murderers Jean Proulx, Eric Beauregard, Maurice Cusson, Alexandre Nicole, 2007-09-10 Little is known about Sexual Murderers those who kill in a sexual context Recent studies have compared their backgrounds and characteristics with that of rapists and or violent non sexual offenders This translation of a French original by the renowned Jean Proulx challenges existing knowledge on sexual murders offers new tools for profiling and interrogation and helps to establish a new research base Current theories of sexual murder its prevalence reasons including attachment theories profiling and interrogation techniques are all addressed in Proulx s distinctive thought provoking style

The Message is Murder Jonathan Beller, 2017-11-20 Written as a wake up call to the field of media studies The Message is Murder analyses the violence bound up in the everyday functions of digital media At its core is the concept of computational capital the idea that capitalism itself is a computer turning qualities into quantities and that the rise of digital culture and technologies under capitalism should be seen as an extension of capitalism s bloody logic Engaging with Borges Turing Claude Shannon Hitchcock and Marx this book tracks computational capital to reveal the lineages of capitalised power as it has restructured representation consciousness and survival in the twentieth and twenty first centuries It argues that the global intensification of inequality relies on the discursive informatic and screen mediated production of social difference Ultimately The Message is Murder makes the case for recognising media communications across all platforms books films videos photographs and even language itself as technologies of political economy entangled with the social contexts of a capitalism that is inherently racial gendered and genocidal
