Why Things Burn Daphne Gottlieb:

Why Things Burn Daphne Gottlieb, 2001-06-25 This Lambda Literary Award nominee is a book of fierce original poetry by one of San Francisco's leading poets and performers Educated without being didactic lyrical without being doggerel passionate without being over the top and sexy without being prurient Why Things Burn is everything poetry should be without many of the things that poetry unfortunately is These pieces work both in performance and on the page They tackle sexuality lesbian issues rape modern urban living and the author's Jewish heritage with a sometimes kooky but always sophisticated view of life Half/Life Laurel Snyder, 2006-03-23 Written by authors born into the so called dilemma of intermarriage the stories in Half Life explore the experience of being raised in a half Jewish home Though each essay is distinct and the experiences are vastly different each describes growing up without a streamlined identity unsure of community or religious direction From Jenny Traig whose experiences led her to extreme devotion in the form of religious obsessive compulsion scrupulosity to Thisbe Nissen who finally felt Jewish after discovering a rosary in her boyfriend's sock drawer these authors examine the complicated relationships they felt with the Jewish community and the world at large By turns tragic and funny religious and heartbreaking angry and surprisingly familiar Half Life represents the altogether diverse memories and reflections of a handful of men and women who have spent a lifetime grappling with how to define themselves or not Resulting from that struggle is a complex exploration and some truly brilliant prose The Quotable Jewish
