Wicked Words Quarterly Pam Phillips, Stephen Baird, Gerri Leen, Samantha Lienhard, Conor Powers-Smith, Gary Girod, Charles Gramlich, Dennis Mombauer, 2014-11-30 Well Christmas is just around the corner and I really should have indulged in a festive theme based around this time of year but I just couldn't bring myself to do it though I do wear red a lot and have a big white beard honestly I had told myself when I started this zine that I should try not to have themes running through the short stories of any one issue as I always love to read a collection of diverse stories but in this issue there is a micro theme based around Japan and Japanese culture which arose by sheer coincidence Rokurokubi Fox Fire and The Undying Pen are all written with Japanese culture in mind either directly based on Japanese mythology or set in a Japanese styled fantasy setting The first story in this collection Nowherian Funeral could easily be based in the worlds of Sandman and Death of the Vertigo comics and really matures with more than one reading Harry's Homework talks to us all about that fear of technology that may eventually try to surpass the works of humans but in the meantime fails to meet the expectations we have of it A classic horror Malvore plays upon fears of the unknown and the acceptance of oppression then the consequences of fighting back A zombie tale but not just another zombie tale Long Dead woman in a Black Dress has a lovely twist I was disappointed that I couldn't include more of the Novellas that were sent to me over the year as there were so many good stories that need to be out there and read In light of this next year I am going to offer those that don't make it into the final issue of the year a chance to be in a profit share only issue in the January Stephen Baird Editor Tamil Dalit Feminist Poetics Pramila Venkateswaran, 2024-09-23 Tamil Dalit feminist poetry occurs in the nexus of caste demands and literary expectations based on Tamil high culture as set in the literary conventions of both classical and contemporary aesthetics Tamil Dalit feminist poets and their allies challenge literary expectations set for women poets as well as caste stigma In Tamil Dalit Feminist Poetics Resistance Power and Solidarity Pramila Venkateswaran argues that Dalit poets Sukirtharani Arangamallika Umadevi Meena Kandasamy and Tamil feminist allies such as Malathi Maitri and Kutty Revathi challenge the literary tradition of Tamil poetry by presenting their radical poems on themes based on their experience and witnessing the trauma of violence on Dalit women's bodies thus placing caste and gender at the center of their work They assert their subjectivity offering us a feminist poetics that is rich with insights on the Dalit body spirituality music culture Dalit connection to land and democracy Their poems theorize women's experiences using metaphor symbol folk idioms as well as satire and irony to express feminist connectedness to all spheres of life Replete with anti caste resistance of language form and content Tamil Dalit feminist poets reframe both feminism and contemporary Tamil poetry Thus Dalit feminist poetry and other cultural productions are vehicles for solidarity and democracy Special Warfare, 2016 The Strategy Manual Mike Baxter, 2020-10-28 The Strategy Manual is a practical handbook for anyone interested in the creation management or governance of strategy It demystifies strategy and provides a step by step guide on how to do it well Jewish

Entanglements in the Atlantic World Aviva Ben-Ur, Wim Klooster, 2024-01-15 Jewish Entanglements in the Atlantic World represents the first collective attempt to reframe the study of colonial and early American Jewry within the context of Atlantic History From roughly 1500 to 1830 the Atlantic World was a tightly intertwined swathe of global powers that included Europe Africa North and South America and the Caribbean How when and where do Jews figure in this important chapter of history This book explores these questions and many others The essays of this volume foreground the connectivity between Jews and other population groups in the realms of empire trade and slavery taking readers from the shores of Caribbean islands to various outposts of the Dutch English Spanish and Portuguese empires Jewish Entanglements in the Atlantic World revolutionizes the study of Jews in early American history forging connections and breaking down artificial academic divisions so as to start writing the history of an Atlantic world influenced strongly by the culture economy politics religion society and sexual relations of Jewish people

Charlie Foxtrot Kim Richard Nossal, 2016-12-10 Defence expert Kim Richard Nossal presents a damning indictment of defence procurement in Canada and shows how to fix it Defence procurement in Canada is a mess New equipment is desperately needed for the Canadian Armed Forces but most projects are behind schedule over budget or both Not only has mismanagement cost Canadian taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars it has also deprived Canada and the CAF of much needed military capacity Successive governments both Liberal and Conservative have managed the complexities of defence procurement so poorly that it will take years before the Royal Canadian Navy the Royal Canadian Air Force and the Canadian Army regain the capabilities they need While new prime ministers invariably come to power promising to fix problems inherited from their predecessors getting it right has remained frustratingly elusive Charlie Foxtrot offers a fresh take on this important policy issue It shows why governments have found it so difficult to equip the CAF efficiently and offers a set of political prescriptions for fixing defence procurement in Canada

Ancient Rome Monica M. Bontty, 2020-03-17 This book shares little known facts from and excerpts of primary source documents to correct popular misconceptions about Ancient Rome and to show how those misconceptions became widespread Roman personalities and history have always had a larger than life profile in American popular culture but most people think of this ancient civilization as merely decadent cruel and elitist Most of our stereotypical conceptions of the empire and its people however are wrong This book corrects popular misconceptions about the ancient Roman world thus making ancient history relevant and accessible to modern readers and allowing modern critics of American politics and society to draw accurate comparisons Each chapter discusses how a particular misconception developed spread and evolved into what we now believe to be the historical truth Topics discussed include crucifixion the destruction of Carthage Julius Caesar s last words and Roman hygiene Excerpts from primary source documents provide evidence of both the rise of the historical fictions and the truths behind the myths

A History of Stepfamilies in Early America Lisa Wilson, 2014 History of Stepfamilies in Early America

Assessing the Use of Agent-Based Models for Tobacco Regulation Institute of Medicine, Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice, Committee on the Assessment of Agent-Based Models to Inform Tobacco Product Regulation, 2015-07-17 Tobacco consumption continues to be the leading cause of preventable disease and death in the United States. The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulates the manufacture, distribution, and marketing of tobacco products, specifically cigarettes, cigarette tobacco, roll-your-own tobacco, and smokeless tobacco, to protect public health and reduce tobacco use in the United States. Given the strong social component inherent to tobacco use, onset, cessation, and relapse, and given the heterogeneity of those social interactions, agent-based models have the potential to be an essential tool in assessing the effects of policies to control tobacco. Assessing the Use of Agent-Based Models for Tobacco Regulation describes the complex tobacco environment, discusses the usefulness of agent-based models to inform tobacco policy and regulation, presents an evaluation framework for policy-relevant agent-based models, examines the role and type of data needed to develop agent-based models for tobacco regulation, provides an assessment of the agent-based model developed for FDA, and offers strategies for using agent-based models to inform decision making in the future. The Politics and Crisis Management of Animal Health Security John Connolly, 2016-03-09 The Politics and Crisis Management of Animal Health Security addresses the 2001 foot-and-mouth epidemic in the United Kingdom, one of if not the most significant crises ever to face the UK farming industry. Underpinned by interviews with politicians and bureaucrats and with significant primary documentary analysis, the book shows that the crisis was a critical juncture in how disease outbreaks have been planned and managed ever since. The author explores how this event affected policy and governance arrangements for managing subsequent disease-induced threats such as avian influenza and bovine TB and concludes by considering the temporality of lesson learning by the UK government, including the current and future challenges associated with managing incongruent risks, e.g., flood protection, swine flu, and Ebola. This book provides students of public policy and administration with a significant illustration of how key concepts and analytical lenses from public policy can be applied to the study of the contours of practical policy change. Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1914 Design, When Everybody Designs Ezio Manzini, 2015-03-06 The role of design, both expert and nonexpert, in the ongoing wave of social innovation toward sustainability. In a changing world, everyone designs; each individual person and each collective subject, from enterprises to institutions, from communities to cities and regions, must define and enhance a life project. Sometimes these projects generate unprecedented solutions; sometimes they converge on common goals and realize larger transformations. As Ezio Manzini describes in this book, we are witnessing a wave of social innovations as these changes unfold an expansive open-co-design process in which new solutions are suggested and new meanings are created. Manzini distinguishes between diffuse design performed by everybody and expert design performed by those who have been trained as designers and describes how they interact. He maps what design experts can do to trigger

and support meaningful social changes focusing on emerging forms of collaboration These range from community supported agriculture in China to digital platforms for medical care in Canada from interactive storytelling in India to collaborative housing in Milan These cases illustrate how expert designers can support these collaborations making their existence more probable their practice easier their diffusion and their convergence in larger projects more effective Manzini draws the first comprehensive picture of design for social innovation the most dynamic field of action for both expert and nonexpert designers in the coming decades

British Books ,1914 The Making and Remaking of Australasia Tony Ballantyne,2022-12 This book explores the emergence of Australasia as a way of thinking about the culture and geography of this region Although it is frequently understood to apply only to Australia and New Zealand the concept has a longer and more complicated history Australasia emerged in the mid 18th century in both French and British writing as European empires extended their reach into Asia and the Pacific and initially held strong links to the Asian continent The book shows that interpretations and understandings of Australasia shifted away from Asia in light of British imperial interests in the 19th century and the concept was adapted by varying political agendas and cultural visions in order to reach into the Pacific or towards Antarctica The Making and Remaking of Australasia offers a number of rich case studies which highlight how the idea itself was adapted and moulded by people and texts both in the southern hemisphere and the imperial metropole where a range of competing actors articulated divergent visions of this part of the British Empire An important contribution to the cultural history of the British Empire Australia New Zealand and Pacific Studies this collection shows how Australasia has had multiple often contrasting meanings

The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1914 Urban Regeneration and Neoliberalism Clare Kinsella,2020-10-29 This book explores the concept of home in Liverpool over phases of regeneration following the Second World War Using qualitative research in the oral history tradition it explores what the author conceptualises as forward facing regeneration in the period up to the 1980s and neoliberal regeneration interventions that prioritise the past from the 1980s to the present The author examines how the shift towards city centre focused redevelopment and event led initiatives has implications for the way residents make sense of their conceptualisations of home and demonstrates how the shift in regeneration focus discourse and practice away from Liverpool s neighbourhood districts and towards the city centre has produced changes in the ways that residents identify with neighbourhoods and the city centre with prominence being given to the latter Employing Pierre Bourdieu s concepts of habitus and field as mechanisms for understanding different senses of home and shifts from localised views to globalised views this book will appeal to those with interests in urban sociology regeneration geography sociology home cultures and cities
