Will There Really Be A Morning Frances Farmer:

Will There Really be a Morning? Frances Farmer, 1972 Acknowledged as one of the world's most beautiful women and critically acclaimed as an actress Frances Farmer suddenly toppled from stardom and plunged headlong into the terror-ridden world of the insane With uncomfortable candor she documents the brutal details of those isolated years in a mental hospital and her solitary struggle for reality When she was released after seven years of horror she gradually inched her way into a world she had never known a world of lucidity and serenity In the strength and calmness that surfaced during her final physical illness Frances Farmer reaffirmed that despite the twisted nightmare journeys life itself is something of value and a reason for survival Her unadorned searing narrative was completed a few days before her death from jacket flaps

Nightmare Factories Troy Rondinone, 2019-09-24 How the insane asylum came to exert such a powerful hold on the American imagination Madhouse funny farm psychiatric hospital loony bin nuthouse mental institution no matter what you call it the asylum has a powerful hold on the American imagination Stark and foreboding they symbolize mistreatment fear and imprisonment standing as castles of despair and tyranny across the countryside In the asylum of American fiction and film treatments are torture attendants are thugs and psychiatrists are despots In Nightmare Factories Troy Rondinone offers the first history of mental hospitals in American popular culture Beginning with Edgar Allan Poe's 1845 short story The System of Dr Tarr and Prof Fether Rondinone surveys how American novelists poets memoirists reporters and filmmakers have portrayed the asylum and how those representations reflect larger social trends in the United States Asylums he argues darkly reflect cultural anxieties and the shortcomings of democracy as well as the ongoing mistreatment of people suffering from mental illness Nightmare Factories traces the story of the asylum as the masses have witnessed it Rondinone shows how works ranging from Moby Dick and Dracula to One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest Halloween and American Horror Story have all conversed with the asylum Drawing from fictional and real accounts movies personal interviews and tours of mental hospitals both active and defunct Rondinone uncovers a story at once familiar and bizarre where reality meets fantasy in the foggy landscape of celluloid and pulp

Frances Farmer Peter Shelley, 2014-01-10 Previous biographies of American actress Frances Farmer 1913-1970 have downplayed her professional achievements to emphasize her turbulent personal life including several police arrests and repeated confinements in a state mental hospital By focusing upon her acting career this book endeavors to restore her position as a significant Hollywood player of the 1930s 40s and 50s An analysis of her film radio and television work is offered as well as assessments of the three Frances Farmer biopics and the documentaries in which she is featured Each of her 16 films receives a chapter-length discussion A very lengthy biographical chapter is included

Gay Seattle Gary L. Atkins, 2011-10-17 Winner of a 2004 Washington State Book Award Winner of a 2004 Alpha Sigma Nu ASN Jesuit Book Award In 1893 the Washington State legislature quietly began passing a set of laws that essentially made homosexuality and eventually even the discussion of homosexuality a crime A century later Mike Lowry became the first governor of the state to address the annual lesbian and gay pride rally in Seattle Gay Seattle traces the evolution of Seattle's gay community in those 100 turbulent years telling through a century of stories how gays and lesbians have sought to achieve a sense of belonging in Seattle Gary Atkins recounts the demonization of gays by social crusaders around the turn of the century the earliest prosecutions for sodomy the official harassment and discrimination through most of the twentieth century and the medical discrimination and commitment to mental hospitals that continued into the 1970s as homosexuality was diagnosed as a disease that could be cured Places of refuge from this imposed social exile were created in underground theater and dance clubs the Gold Rush era burlesque shows modern drag theater and in mid century the emergence of openly gay bars from the Casino to Shelley's Leg Many of these were subjected to steady exploitation by corrupt police until bar owner MacIver Wells and two Seattle Times reporters exposed the racket The increasingly public presence of gays in Seattle was accompanied by the gradual coalescence of social services and self help organizations such as the Dorian Society gay businesses and advocacy groups including the Greater Seattle Business Association and the stormy relationship between the Vatican Seattle's Catholic hierarchy and gay worshippers Atkins narrative reveals the complex and often frustrating process of claiming a civic life showing how gays and lesbians have engaged in a multilayered struggle for social acceptance against the forces of state and city politics the police the media and public opinion The emergence of mainstream political activism in the 1970s and ultimately the election of Cal Anderson and other openly gay officials to the state legislature and city council were momentous events yet shadowed by the devastating rise of AIDS and its effect on the homosexual community as a whole These stories of exile and belonging draw on numerous original interviews as well as case studies of individuals and organizations that played important roles in the history of Seattle's gay and lesbian community Collectively they are a powerful testament to the endurance and fortitude of this minority community revealing the ways a previously hidden sexual minority comes out as a people and establishes a public presence in the face of challenges from within and without us to recognise similar evils in everyday life daily life under oppressive regimes and in racist environments violence against women including in the home violence and executions in prisons hate crimes and violence against animals Card analyses torture terrorism and genocide in the light of recent atrocities considering whether there can be moral justifications for terrorism and torture and providing conceptual tools to distinguish genocide from non genocidal mass slaughter
