The Works of that Eminent Servant of Christ, John Bunyan, Minister of the Gospel and Formerly Pastor of a Congregation at Bedford John Bunyan, 1832 Translation Daniel Weissbort, Ástráður Eysteinnsson, 2006 Translation Theory and Practice A Historical Reader responds to the need for a collection of primary texts on translation in the English tradition from the earliest times to the present day Based on an exhaustive survey of the wealth of available materials the Reader demonstrates throughout the link between theory and practice with excerpts not only of significant theoretical writings but of actual translations as well as excerpts on translation from letters interviews autobiographies and fiction The collection is intended as a teaching tool but also as an encyclopaedia for the use of translators and writers on translation. It presents the full panoply of approaches to translation without necessarily judging between them but showing clearly what is to be gained or lost in each case. Translations of key texts such as the Bible and the Homeric epic are traced through the ages with the same passages excerpted making it possible for readers to construct their own map of the evolution of translation and to evaluate in their historical contexts the variety of approaches. The passages in question are also accompanied by ad verbum versions to facilitate comparison. The bibliographies are likewise comprehensive. The editors have drawn on the expertise of leading scholars in the field including the late James S Holmes, Louis Kelly, Jonathan Wilcox, Jane Stevenson, David Hopkins and many others. In addition, significant non-English texts such as Martin Luther's Circular Letter on Translation which may be said to have inaugurated the Reformation are included, helping to set the English tradition in a wider context. Related items such as the introductions to their work by Tudor and Jacobean translators or the work of women translators from the sixteenth to eighteenth centuries have been brought together in collages marking particularly important moments or developments in the history of translation. This comprehensive reader provides an invaluable and illuminating resource for scholars and students of translation and English literature as well as poets, cultural historians and professional translators.

Information Structure in Indigenous Languages of the Americas José Camacho, Rodrigo Gutiérrez-Bravo, Liliana Sánchez, 2010-07-30

The study of the interaction between syntax and information structure has attracted a great deal of attention since the publication of foundational works on this subject such as Enric Valld's 1992 The Informational Component and Knud Lambrecht's 1994 Information Structure and Sentence Form. The book inserts itself in this contemporary interest by providing a collection of articles on different aspects of the syntax-pragmatics interface in the indigenous languages of The Americas. The first chapter provides a brief introduction of some of the basic descriptive issues addressed in them and of some of the theoretical tools that have been developed to analyze them. The reader finds articles that focus mostly on empirical issues while others are mostly oriented to theoretical issues. Diverse theoretical approaches are addressed including Minimalism, Optimality theory, syntax and Meaning Text Theory. The volume includes articles on the following topics: the grammatical means to encode pragmatic notions in Tariana; Aikhenvald, the relation between clause structure and information structure in Lushootseed; D. Beck, the split distribution of null subjects in Shipibo; J. Camacho and J. Elías Ulloa, the syntactic structure of left peripheral discourse-related functions in Kuikuro; B. Franchetto and M. Santos, an agglutinative and head-final language word order and focus patterns in Yaqui; L. Guerrero and V. Belloro, SVO and topicalization in Yucatec Maya; R. Gutiérrez-Bravo and J. Monforte, the structure of the left periphery in Karaja/Maia and the interaction between the wh-words and polarity sensitivity in Southern Quechua; L. Sánchez
