

The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly water or a night sky, with several dark, irregularly shaped rocks or stones floating or scattered across it. A warm, golden light source is visible at the top, creating a soft glow and illuminating the scene. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Why do we Fall? So we can learn to pick ourselves back up.

Divided We Fall Alice M. Rivlin,Sheri Rivlin,Allan Rivlin,2022-10-04 Partisan warfare and gridlock in Washington threaten to squander America s opportunity to show the world that democracy can solve serious economic problems and ensure widely shared prosperity Instead of working together to meet the challenges ahead an aging work force exploding inequality climate change rising debt our elected leaders are sabotaging our economic future by blaming and demonizing each other in hopes of winning big in the next election They are weakening America s capacity for world leadership and the case for democracy here and abroad Alice M Rivlin with decades of experience in economic policy making argues that proven economic policies could lead to sustainable American prosperity and opportunity for all but crafting them requires the tough time consuming work of consensus building and bipartisan negotiation In a divided country with shifting majorities major policies must have bipartisan buy in and broad public support Otherwise we will have either destabilizing swings in policy or total gridlock in the face of challenges looming at us Rivlin believes that Americans can and must save our hyper partisan politicians from themselves She makes the case that on many practical economic issues the public is far less divided than partisan politicians and sensationalist media would have us believe She draws attention to numerous hopeful efforts to bridge partisan and ideological divides in Washington in state capitols and city governments and communities around the country and advocates a major national effort to enable citizens and future leaders to learn and practice the art of listening to each other and working together to find common ground This book is a practical guide for Americans across the political spectrum who are agonizing over partisan warfare incivility and policy gridlock and looking for ways they can help to get our democratic policy process back on a constructive track before it is too late Next Time I Fall in Love Chap P. Clark,2004-05-10 Jeff and Ann had been dating for only a month but they knew they were in love Soon they were spending all of their free time together But things started going wrong They d fight then kiss and make up only to fight some more Finally Ann told Jeff it was over She didn t love him anymore besides she wanted to date another guy She said she loved me said Jeff crushed and bitter I thought love was supposed to last How can something so right become so wrong Jeff and Ann s story is one of many told in Next Time I Fall in Love In a helpful and readable book for teenagers Chap Clark gives solid practical advice on forming and keeping healthy dating relationships He deals with questions like these What is love Why would anyone want to date me What can hurt a dating relationship Sex How far is too far How can I know when it s time to break up What can I do to improve my dating relationships If you re 13 to 25 years old or if you know anyone that age and if you re interested in learning more about how to be happy healthy and whole in a dating relationship then this book is for you
