Bulletin ,1924      Existentialism and Sociology , Existentialism and Sociology originally published under the title The Existential Sociology of Jean Paul Sartre is the first work to systematically and critically analyze the existential ideas of Jean Paul Sartre and to demonstrate their importance and connection to central sociological categories found in the theories of Weber Durkheim Freud Mead and others Hayim analyzes key existential concepts of negation temporality choice anguish and bad faith and carefully situates them in the different relations of self to the otherrelations of indifference and destruction as well as relations of engagement and pledge She joins the two orders of beingontology and sociology and establishes intellectual and ethical continuity between the phenomenology of Being and Nothingness Sartre s momentous early work and neglected sociological categories in his later works Critique of Dialectical Reason and Notebooks for an Ethics Hayim makes accessible to the social scientist a rich repertoire of existential motifs and perspectives on community and group interactions and their inextricable bond to the life practice of the individual The author contends that the massive language of a sociology of things instills in the human actor a feeling of helplessness and gross inferiority vis a vis the social world She offers in contrast the existential emphasis on the importance of substituting live human experience for mechanistic processes of explanation and of establishing a language of conscious choice and responsibility in place of the massive language found in orthodox social analysis The new introductory essay suggests the influence of Sartre on new discourses in sociological and social psychological theory especially with reference to our contemporary disaffection with classical notions of emancipation and other universalized discourses as well as in reference to current debates on essentialism and self identity Hayim s book will interest a wide variety of readers including phenomenologists sociologists admirers of Sartre s theories and students of existential social psychology      Directory of Directors in the City of New York ,1947
