Coffman,Theophilus Savvas,2020-12-18 Several of American literature s most prominent authors and many of their most perceptive critics and reviewers argue that fiction of the last quarter century has turned away from the tendencies of postmodernist writing Yet the nature of that turn and the defining qualities of American fiction after postmodernism remain less than clear This volume identifies four prominent trends of the contemporary scene the recovery of the real a rethinking of historical engagement a preoccupation with materiality and a turn to the planetary Readings of works by various leading figures including Dave Eggers Jonathan Franzen A M Homes Lance Olsen Richard Powers William T Vollmann and David Foster Wallace support a variety of arguments about this recent revitalization of American literature The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Textual Practice Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche,2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research Contemporary American Fiction in the European Classroom Laurence W. Mazzeno,Sue Norton,2022-04-06 This book offers insight into the ways students enrolled in European classrooms in higher education come to understand American experience through its literary fiction which for decades has been a key component of English department offerings and American Studies curricula across the continent and in Great Britain and Ireland The essays provide an understanding of how post World War II American writers some already elevated to canonical status and some not are represented in European university classrooms and why they have been chosen for inclusion in coursework The book will be of interest to scholars and teachers of American literature and American studies and to students in American literature and American studies courses The New Pynchon Studies Joanna Freer,2019-05-09 The essays in this collection are at the forefront of Pynchon studies representing distinctively twenty first century approaches to his work James Agee in Context Michael A. Lofaro,2023-01-17 It is difficult to overestimate the impact of the many new works by James Agee uncovered and published in the last twenty years These previously unknown primary works have in turn encouraged a parallel explosion of critical evaluation and reevaluation by scholars to which James Agee in Context is the latest contribution This superb collection from well known James Agee scholars features myriad approaches and contexts for understanding the author's fiction poetry journalism and screenwriting The essays bring the reader from the streets of James Agee's New York to travel with the author from Alabama to Hollywood to Havana Contributors explore overlapping and sometimes unique subjects themes and accomplishments or lack thereof in Agee's uncovered works and highlight the diversity of interest that Agee's complete body of work inspires The insightful scholarship on influence examines connections between Agee and Wright Morris Helen Levitt John Dos Passos Ernest Hemingway and Stephen Crane Such juxtapositions serve to illustrate how Agee drew on literary influences as a young man how he used his work as a journalist to craft fiction as he was about to turn thirty and his influence upon others The volume concludes with three poems and a short story by Agee all previously unknown It seems astonishing that so much remains to be discovered about this protean author his materials and his circle Yet the recovery and analysis of neglected texts and information mined from newspapers and magazines proves the extent to which Agee kept his mind and his work as he himself put it patiently concentrated upon the essential quietudes of the human soul Clues: A Journal of Detection, Vol. 33, No. 2 (Fall 2015) Elizabeth Foxwell, 2015-10-13 For over two decades Clues has included the best scholarship on mystery and detective fiction With a combination of academic essays and nonfiction book reviews it covers all aspects of mystery and detective fiction material in print television and movies As the only American scholarly journal on mystery fiction Clues is essential reading for literature and film students and researchers popular culture aficionados librarians and mystery authors fans and critics around the globe

Rewriting Early America Christopher K. Coffman, 2018-11-27 Recent poems and fictions set in the early Americas are typically read as affirmations of cultural norms as evidence of the impossibility of genuine engagement with the historical past or as contentious repudiations of received histories Inspired particularly by Mihai Spărosu's arguments regarding literary playfulness as an opening to peace Rewriting Early America: The Prenatal Past in Postmodern Literature adopts a different perspective with the goal of demonstrating that many recent literary texts undertake more constructive and hopeful projects with regard to the American past than critics usually recognize While honoring writers' pervasive critiques of hegemony this volume trades a preoccupation with antagonism for an interest in restoration and recuperation It describes how texts by John Barth John Berryman Susan Howe Toni Morrison Paul Muldoon Thomas Pynchon and William T. Vollmann harness the ambiguities of the colonial past to find sociocultural possibilities that operate beyond the workings of power and outside the politics of difference Throughout this book remains devoted to uncovering the moments at which contemporary writers proffer visions of American communities defined not by marginalization and oppression but by responsive understanding and inclusion

"From Faraway California" Ali Dehdarirad, 2023-09-15 Offering a transdisciplinary journey across Thomas Pynchon's California trilogy From Faraway California addresses the representation of city space in the Crying of Lot 49, Vineland and Inherent Vice through geourban lenses Drawing on specific concepts in urban and regional studies the book provides a thorough examination of Pynchon's spatial imaginary where the reader comes to understand how his fiction tackles the socio-political and cultural consequences of urban restructuring in the contemporary city and the lives of its citizens Pynchon's depiction of California is further analyzed from mythical and environmental standpoints to shed light on his planetary vision and post-postmodernist poetics in the span of nearly half a century More broadly the book's geocritical and urban analyses of Pynchon's fiction indicate what might take place concerning the future of urbanism toward planetary urbanization and the formation of the city region

Migration, Diaspora, Exile Daniel Stein, Cathy C. Waegner, Geoffroy de Laforcade, Page R. Laws, 2020-05-27 Migration is the most volatile sociopolitical issue of our time as the current escalation of discourse and action in the United States and Europe concerning walls border security refugee camps and deportations indicates The essays by the international and interdisciplinary group of scholars assembled in this volume offer critical filters suggesting that this escalation and its historical precedents do not preclude redemptive counterstrategies Encoded in narratives of affiliation and escape these counterstrategies are variously launched as literary cinematic and civic interventions in past and present constructions of diasporic migratory or exilic identities The essays trace these narratives through the figure of the exile as it moves across times borders and genres transmogrifying into the fugitive the escapee the refugee the nomad the Other Arguing that narratives and figures of migration to and in Europe and the Americas share tropes that link migration to kinship community refuge and hegemony the volume identifies a transhistorical transcultural and transnational common ground for experiences of mediated diaspora migration and exile at a time when public discourse and policy making emphasize borders divisions and violent confrontations
