Towards a holistic approach to support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development Learner Performance in South Africa Charles Edward Wickens Simkins, Andrew Paterson, 2005 South Africa has done well to systematically expand its educational system and to lengthen the schooling experience of successive learner cohorts But the quality of the output from the school system has been questioned In seeking to identify the reasons for this it is important to relate educational outputs competencies as measured for instance by examinations or standardized tests to inputs Determining the relative contributions of the inputs of the school the household and the individual learner to educational outputs is not straightforward particularly since very little educational production function analysis has been undertaken in South Africa Until recently no South African school data has incorporated test results school characteristics and information on the household circumstances of individual learners necessary for this kind of analysis However the results from a survey of a sample of schools involved in the large scale Quality Learning Project QLP funded by the Business Trust have yielded such data The QLP data set offers a new analytical opportunity to address the question What are the effects of social and economic variables on educational outcomes in the QLP schools Language and Sustainable Development Lisa J. McEntee-Atalianis, Humphrey Tonkin, 2023-03-03 This book addresses the importance of language in matters of sustainability and incorporating such concerns in implementing the UN's Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Sustainable language policy must aim to include all groups including language minorities and marginalized populations such as refugees and aid recipients in conditions that allow for their inclusion in making and implementing policy The book brings together nine studies covering such topics as language and digital resources sustainable and inclusive multilingual education national language policy and language in peacekeeping operations A final chapter addresses the crucial intersection between sociolinguistics and economics and the implications of this for development and the SDGs Aspects of Sesotho Language Acquisition Katherine Demuth,1983 Multilingual Education Yearbook 2021 Anthony A. Essien,Audrey Msimanga,2021-05-04 This edited book attempts to foreground how challenges and complexities between policy and practice intertwine in the teaching and learning of the STEM subjects in multilingual settings and how they policy and practice impact on educational processes developments and outcomes The unique feature of this book thus lies in its combination of not just language issues in the teaching and learning of the STEM subjects but also in how these issues relate to policy and practice in multilingual contexts and how STEM research and practice may inform and shape language policies and their implementation in multilingual contexts This book is of interest to stakeholders involved in STEM education such as researchers undergraduate and graduate students tertiary level teachers teacher educators curriculum developers as well as other professionals with responsibilities in STEM education subjects The book is written in a way that is accessible to a wide range of backgrounds including those who are in language education Resources in Education ,1997-04 The African Book Publishing Record ,2007 Experiencing and Managing Emotions in the Workplace Neal M. Ashkanasy,Charmine E. J. Härtel,Wilfred J. Mugane,2003 For the thirty third consecutive year the Annual Conference on African Linguistics ACAL has provided the major forum for the discussion of linguistic data geared towards understanding how African languages are constituted acquired and used This volume represents a selection of 25 peer reviewed papers from the 33rd AWAL held in March 2002 at Ohio University in Athens The papers cover language acquisition syntax phonetics phonology morphology historical linguistics as well as language use and function in Africa Accountability in education: meeting our commitments UNESCO,2017-10-30 The second edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report GEM Report presents the latest evidence on global progress towards the education targets of the UN Sustainable Development Goals With hundreds of millions of people still not going to school and many not achieving minimum skills at school it is clear education systems are off track to achieve global goals The marginalized currently bear the most consequences but also stand to benefit the most if policy makers pay sufficient attention to their needs Faced with these challenges along with tight budgets and increased emphasis on results oriented value for money countries are searching for solutions Increased accountability often tops the list The 2017 8 GEM Report shows the entire array of approaches to accountability in education It ranges from countries unused to the concept where violations of the right to education go unchallenged to countries where accountability has become an end in itself instead of a means to inclusive equitable and high quality education and lifelong learning for all The report emphasizes that education is a shared responsibility While governments have primary responsibility all actors schools teachers parents students international organizations private sector providers civil society and the media 0 3 have a role in improving education systems The report emphasized the importance of transparency and availability of information but urges caution in how data are used It makes the case for avoiding accountability systems with a disproportionate focus on narrowly defined results and punitive sanctions In an era of multiple accountability tools the report provides clear evidence on those that are working and those that are not Back cover
