Contesting the Origins of the First World War Troy Paddock, 2019-07-31 Contesting the Origins of the First World War challenges the Anglophone emphasis on Germany as bearing the primary responsibility in causing the conflict and instead builds upon new perspectives to reconsider the roles of the other Great Powers Using the work of Terrance Zuber Sean McMeekin and Stefan Schmidt as building blocks this book reassesses the origins of the First World War and offers an explanation as to why this reassessment did not come about earlier Troy R E Paddock argues that historians need to redraw the historiographical map that has charted the origins of the war His analysis creates a more balanced view of German actions by also noting the actions and inaction of other nations Recent works about the roles of the five Great Powers involved in the events leading up to the war are considered and Paddock concludes that Germany does not bear the primary responsibility This book provides a unique historiographical analysis of key texts published on the origins of the First World War and its narrative encourages students to engage with and challenge historical perspectives

Translating Partition Attia Hosain, 2001 This collection is about those on the wrong side of the border Apart from offering a perspective on displaced people and communities the stories talk about people as religious and linguistic minorities in post Partition India and Pakistan These narratives offer insights into individual experience and break the silence of the collective sphere Giuseppe Verdi Gregory W. Comparing Grief in French, British and Canadian Great War Fiction (1977-2014) Anna Branach-Kallas, Piotr Sadkowski, 2018-09-24 Comparing Grief in French British and Canadian Great War Fiction 1977 2014 offers a comparative analysis of twenty three First World War novels Engaging with such themes as war trauma facial disfigurement women s war identities communal bonds as well as the concepts of mourning and post memory Anna Branach Kallas and Piotr Sadkowski identify the dominant trends in recent French British and Canadian fiction about the Great War Referring to historical sociological philosophical and literary sources they show how by both consolidating and contesting national myths fiction continues to construct the 1914 1918 conflict as a cultural trauma illuminating at the same time some of our most recent ethical concerns

The Mathematical Representation of Physical Reality Shahen Hacyan, 2023-03-06 This book deals with the rise of mathematics in physical sciences beginning with Galileo and Newton and extending to the present day The book is divided into two parts The first part gives a brief history of how mathematics was introduced into physics despite its unreasonable effectiveness as famously pointed out by a distinguished physicist and the criticisms it received from earlier thinkers The second part takes a more philosophical approach and is intended to shed some light on that mysterious effectiveness For this purpose the author reviews the debate between classical philosophers on the existence of innate ideas that allow us to understand the world and also the philosophically based arguments for and against the use of mathematics in physical sciences In this context Schopenhauer s conceptions of causality and matter are very pertinent and their validity is revisited in light of modern physics The final question addressed is whether the effectiveness of mathematics can be explained by its existence in an independent platonic realm as G del believed The book aims at readers interested in the history and philosophy of physics It is accessible to those with only a very basic not professional knowledge of physics

Queer Exposures Ryan Long, 2021-04-20 Roberto Bola o 1953 2003 stands out among recent Latin American writers because of his unique combination of critical acclaim popularity and literary significance Queer Exposures analyzes two central but understudied topics in Bola o s fiction and poetry sexuality and photography Moving beyond a consideration of how his texts represent these topics Ryan F Long demonstrates that when considered in tandem they form the basis for a new innovative and critical approach Emphasizing the processes of exposure associated with photography and sexuality especially queer sexuality provides readers and scholars with a versatile method for comprehending Bola o s constellation of texts With close readings of a broad range of texts from poetry written just after his arrival in Spain in the late 1970s to his posthumously published novels Queer Exposures concludes that an emphasis on sexuality and photography is essential for understanding how Bola o s texts function in dialogue with one another to elucidate and critique the interrelations of writing visual representation and power
