Fallon,2025-08-15 You cannot read Fallon s book without gaining tremendous respect for those Marines who fought with courage and skill and served honorably where their country asked them to I strongly recommend Hill 119 for those who wish to gain additional insight into the Vietnam war and how it was fought W E Boomer General U S Marine Corps Ret The Marines and Corpsmen of Delta Company 1st Reconnaissance Battalion 1st Marine Division were surrounded by the North Vietnamese Army NVA for six hundred days in 1969 and 1970 during the Vietnam

War Hill 119 is a rise on a finger of land Located twenty eight kilometers south of Da Nang that overlooks the Thu Bon River Basin and Go Noi Island The hill provided Marines with an excellent 360 degree view of the region that was known as Indian Country and so it was occupied as an Observation Post Its original mission was to support Operation Taylor Common Task Force Yankee s push west into Gen Binh s Base Area 112 The Observation Post produced immediate results with supporting arms inflicting casualties on the NVA Based on its immediate and enduring success as a tactical obstacle for the NVA the OP became a key piece in the defense of the Da Nang Vital Area The Marines called supporting arms every day and every night They rained fire down on the North Vietnamese Army NVA and killed over a thousand enemy fighters They posed such a threat that Gen Binh assigned his elite T89 Sapper Battalion to eliminate the Recon Marines on Hill 119 Throughout this period as part of a six man team each Recon Marine would run multiple adrenaline filled patrols deep into enemy territory in small teams for six weeks and then serve for two weeks on the OP Despite its danger the Marines considered OP duty as a relaxing break This first full account of Hill 119 written by historian Michael Fallon who served as reconnaissance patrol leader on Hill 119 is based upon firsthand accounts from the Recon Marines carefully cross referenced with patrol reports and command chronologies It covers the Marines experiences in the bush on the hill and in the rear The role of new battalion commanders with their changing tactics is discussed the six officers impacted the battalion with their personalities as well as their planning and execution of the changing missions with the always changing enemy situation from classic Keyhole snoop and poop patrols to aggressive Stingray patrols designed to inflict casualties

Peacekeepers at War Col. Timothy J. Geraghty, USMC (Ret.), 2009-09-30 On October 23 1983 nearly simultaneous suicide truck bombings killed 241 U S peacekeepers in their barracks at the Beirut International Airport BIA and 58 French paratroopers at their headquarters two miles north of BIA In this long awaited book the Marine Corps commander of the U S Multi National Peacekeeping Force that was destroyed by terrorists in Lebanon tells his story for the first time Together these suicide bombings comprised the largest nonnuclear explosion ever recorded and are now recognized as a seminal event leading to the current war on terrorism Such acts of war revealed a new highly effective tactic which complemented the terrorist s strategic goals the withdrawal of the peacekeepers and Western influence from Lebanon and a change in U S policy Peacekeepers at War lays out in detail a sequence of events leading up to the suicide truck bombings from which one can extrapolate the rationale motives and perpetrators behind it Geraghty argues that the absence of any retribution against the perpetrators emboldened the terrorists to assume they could attack Americans and Western interests with impunity This led to kidnappings torture and the murders of Americans and other Westerners Peacekeepers at War will be of interest to general readers who want to learn more about this seminal event and its effects on the current global war on terrorism
