The Rough Guide to Wales Mike Parker, Paul Whitfield, 2003 This guide covers everything from Wales pumping nightlife and rural cosmopolitanism to its crags and castles Critical reviews are given on accommodation and restaurants suiting all pockets from budget to luxury There are detailed descriptions of numerous walks from gentle lakeside strolls to serious mountain scrambles and water sports including surfing and the locally pioneered sport of coasteering

Handbook of Academic Integrity Sarah Elaine Eaton, 2023-12-04 The book brings together diverse views from around the world and provides a comprehensive overview of academic integrity and how to create the ethical academy At the same time the Handbook does not shy away from some of the vigorous debates in the field such as the causes of academic integrity breaches There has been an explosion of interest in academic integrity in the last 20-30 years New technologies that have made it easier than ever for students to cut and paste coupled with global media scandals of high profile researchers behaving badly have resulted in the perception that plagiarism is on the rise This in combination with the massification and commercialisation of higher education has resulted in a burgeoning interest in the importance of academic integrity how to safeguard it and how to address breaches appropriately What may have seemed like a relatively easy topic to address students copying sources without attribution has in fact turned out to be a complex interdisciplinary field of research requiring contributions from linguists psychologists social scientists anthropologists teaching and learning specialists mathematicians accountants medical doctors lawyers and philosophers to name just a few Because of this broad interest and input this handbook serves as the single authoritative reference work which brings together the vast growing interdisciplinary and at times contradictory body of literature For both established researchers practitioners and those new to the field this Handbook provides a one stop shop as well as a launching pad for new explorations and discussions

Monitoring Nature Conservation in Cultural Habitats: Clive Hurford, Michael Schneider, 2007-08-08 This is the first book to present monitoring as an integral component of responsible conservation management and as a catalyst for decision making The early sections of this illustrated book cover key areas in the development of a monitoring project The later sections of the book comprise a series of case studies covering a wide range of habitats and species These case studies focus mostly though not exclusively on sites that form part of the Natura 2000 series in Europe

Study Guide to Il Gattopardo Brian Cainen, 1998 Il Gattopardo first published in 1958 had a rapid and amazing rise to fame and popularity both within and outside Italy and its controversial interpretation of the Risorgimento has proved to be of enduring interest and relevance It is studied widely in the UK both at GCE Advanced Level and at University The language of the novel is extraordinarily rich and complex on the one hand the source of the book's perennial fascination but on the other a potentially frustrating barrier for the student This Guide provides students and general readers with essential background historical information explanations of the many literary and historical allusions in the text and an extensive glossary Researching Women and Sport Gill Clarke, Barbara Humberstone, 2016-07-27 This book aims to fill an important gap in feminist literature In so doing it addresses critical issues in feminist research around women sport physical activity and PE All too frequently women's presence in the sporting arena is marginalised and rarely are women's experiences heard and analysed Drawing on a diversity of women's perspectives and theoretical standpoints this book focuses upon the neglected process of research with women about sport All contributors to this collection have drawn on their research to illuminate and illustrate the dilemmas and issues involved in researching women's lives Sustainability in Energy and Buildings Nacer M'Sirdi, Aziz Namaane, Robert J.
