Indonesian Islam M. Barry Hooker, 2003-06-30 Indonesian Islam is an important and timely book based on approximately 2 000 fatw pl fat w an opinion on a point of law or dogma given by a person with recognized authority ij za demonstrating that classical Islamic reasoning is an alternative to state defined Islam and is capable of dealing with contemporary challenges in ethics and morality in a consistent and rational way The book provides a comprehensive survey of how modern Indonesian Islamic thinking has responded to changes in social practices since the 1920s and how authorities have ruled on diverse subjects ranging from football pools to land sales and milk banks The author examines in detail the development and nuances of Islamic thinking both by reference to local tradition and comparatively by reference to the classical Arabian texts therefore providing an important contribution to deepening popular understanding of Islam in Indonesia The author s detailed analysis of fatw is unprecedented in the study of Indonesian Islam To date there is no comparable analysis of modern fatw available in book form anywhere in the world making this volume an invaluable resource for anyone who studies Indonesia Professor Hooker describes the fatw as method and doctrine religious duty the status and obligation of women Islam and medical science offences against religion and issues specific to Indonesian Islam Responses to fatw cover such contemporary issues as abortion organ transplants insurance and the status of women For sale in Asia Australia and New Zealand by NUS Press Singapore

Sharia Transformations Michael G. Peletz, 2020-03-17 Few symbols in today s world are as laden and fraught as sharia an Arabic origin term referring to the straight path the path God revealed for humans the norms and rules guiding Muslims on that path and Islamic law and normativity as enshrined in sacred texts or formal statute Yet the ways in which Muslim men and women experience the myriad dimensions of sharia often go unnoticed and unpublicized So too do recent historical changes in sharia judiciaries and contemporary strategies on the part of political and religious elites social engineers and brand stewards to shape solidify and rebrand these institutions Sharia Transformations is an ethnographic historical and theoretical study of the practice and lived entailments of sharia in Malaysia arguably the most economically successful Muslim majority nation in the world The book focuses on the routine everyday practices of Malaysia s sharia courts and the changes that have occurred in the court discourses and practices in recent decades Michael G Peletz approaches Malaysia s sharia judiciary as a global assemblage and addresses important issues in the humanistic and social scientific literature concerning how Malays and other Muslims engage ethical norms and deal with law social justice and governance in a rapidly globalizing world
